

WEATHER FORECASTS
Victoria and Vicinity—Light to moderate winds; generally fair, and moderate.	Wind: generally fair, and a little colder.
Vancouver and Vicinity—Light to moderate winds; generally fair, and a little colder.

The Daily Colonist.

(ESTABLISHED 1858)

NO. 286—SIXTY-FIFTH YEAR

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1923

TWENTY PAGES

CITY PAYS HONOR TO DEAD OF WAR

Victoria Marks Fifth Anniversary of Armistice Day With Impressive Celebration in Memory of Fallen Warriors

VETERANS UNITE IN MARCH TO SERVICE

Silence Period Observed in Streets and Churches Meet in Parliament Square For Memorial Exercises

VICTORIA did honor on Sunday to those who fell and those who served in the Great War.

At eleven o'clock in the morning, at the same hour as that of the memorable "Cease Fire" of the first Armistice Day of five years ago, a silence fell upon the city streets, and men and women paused where the hours found them to offer silent tribute of bowed head to the memory of that host which gave up life in order that a great cause might live.

In the afternoon thousands of the city's people stood in the streets, and watched the men who had come back from the wars march to Parliament Square, where a vast crowd had gathered to pay the tribute of recognition to all those who had played a worthy part in the most conspicuous event of human history.

It was, by common consent, a worthy observance of a great occasion, a fitting commemoration of Armistice Day by fitting symbol and by simple ceremony, a day in the calendar commemorative with its meaning in the lives of succeeding men, did not find adequate expression in the city until last year, when the Victoria Armistice period committee of war veterans resulted in a memorable celebration of the day. The impetus given in this city last year to the movement to keep Armistice Day as an annual international commemoration of the day of victory in the success of yesterday's arrangements, to which the co-operation of many different organizations contributed, and the manner in which that success was measured by the public was a decided success. That was taken by the members of the committee as a sign that the day has become an institution which the future will honor with increasing significance.

Morial Service

The memorial service on the steps of the Parliament Building, conducted by Bishop Scott, the Rev. Dr. J. Campbell, was marked by an address of impressive sincerity, delivered by Major the Rev. J. H. White, formerly "padre" of the 4th Battalion, C.E.F. The clear note by Major White was carried by the survivors of the war, and to those who had inherited the traditions of the men who fell in action, to uphold the spirit which those men had responded to the call to arms. The emphasis lay on those whose hearts had fought, was uttered by Major White, and the right way to honor the memory of such men was to maintain those principles which their lives had upheld, and which lay at the foundation of civilization. A report of the address appears elsewhere in these columns.

The general observance of the period of silence at eleven o'clock in the morning was a striking commentary upon the way in which that simple ceremony has gained the recognition of the Allied peoples of the Great War. At Fort and Douglas Streets yesterday it was to be observed that with the blowing of the fire sirens pedestrians and vehicles came to a standstill. The streets were not crowded at that early Sabbath hour, but it was to be seen that two messenger boys knew what was required of them; that street cars and motor cars came to a full stop, those who pedaled their bicycles stopped and bowed their heads, the men baring their heads. The hour coincided with the opening of special services in most of the city churches, and in these the congregations stood silent until distant guns proclaimed that the interval had begun.

500 Veterans March

The memorial parade was splendidly carried out, the arrangements for it reflecting great credit upon the Armistice period committee, and upon Sergeant-Major F. Hatcher and Pregrad, the marshals of the day. The march, in which the veterans paraded since the war, five hundred of them marching off from the assembly place at the city library, a worthy feature of the veterans' participation in the parade was the fact that they marched without reference to their membership in the different organizations, and were for that day a united body of men. Ribbons and medals were also more noticeable than in any previous year. The sight of little children on the line of the march, standing on the streets with their fathers' medals displayed, was a poignant reminder of what the day meant for many people, and of the various veterans' organizations, led by their own men and their own men and their unaffiliated returned men. Colonel G. Peck, V.C., wearing the mutt which was general to the veterans, was a noticeable figure near the head of the column.

The march to Parliament Square was led by the hand of the Sixteenth Canadian Scottish, followed by the Royal Canadian Naval vessels now in Esquimalt. Then came detachments of the paramilitary forces, led by the Canadian engineers. The fine bearing of the officers and men of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Company, almost all of them veterans of the Great War, was particularly commanding by the precision and route of the march. The Bremont band, making their first appearance in public, led detachments of the Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Boys' Naval

Continued on Page 4

Victoria Honors Memory of Those Who Made War Sacrifice

The Picture Shows a Section of the Assemblage of Thousands Before the Parliament Buildings Who Witnessed the Armistice Memorial Service on Sunday Afternoon.

Former Emperor to Return to Germany

Passports for Himself and Suite Have Been Furnished Him, and Brussels Paper's Expectation Is That One of Hohenzollerns Will Ascend Throne Next Month

BRUSSELS, Nov. 12.—The former German Emperor is preparing to return to the Fatherland. He already has in his hands passports for himself and his suite, and The Brussels Gazette goes far as to say that it is expected the Hohenzollern monarchy will be restored on December 4. William or his son, the former Crown Prince, Frederick William, ascending the throne.

OIL-SOAKED ROAD CAUSES ACCIDENTS

SAANICH WOMAN SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN CAR SKIDS

Seven Motorcar Accidents on East Saanich Road in One Afternoon—Surface to Be Sanded

Climaxing a series of automobile accidents which have occurred on the East Saanich Road during the last two days, Mrs. Henry Dearman, of Water Street, Saanich, was taken to the Royal Jubilee Hospital yesterday suffering from serious injuries. The accident in which Mrs. Dearman was hurt occurred at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon on a small hill about one-quarter of a mile beyond Royal Oak. The incident, in which the car skidded on the wet, slippery pavement, and the car crashed into the bank.

Mrs. Dearman was thrown out by the impact, and when she was rushed to the hospital by Doctor H. E. Ridewood, who was soon on the scene, she recovered so quickly that she had sustained a broken collar bone and a broken pelvis.

On Sunday afternoon no less than seven cars skid from the roadway at different points near Royal Oak. The skid marks, which have become dangerously slippery, and skidding of wheels is almost unavoidable on the curves and hills. None of the seven accidents reported were serious, but all caused minor injuries to cars. None of the occupants of the automobiles will be looked for elsewhere.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF BANK OFFICIAL

Inquest Today at Vancouver Into the Killing of Clerk of Canadian Bank of Commerce

According to bank regulations, he slept on the premises, and in his bedroom were two revolvers, the property of the bank.

He apparently went to bed, for it has been slept in, and some time in the night he was disturbed.

When he did not report for work on Saturday, the manager went to the bedroom and found the young man dead. He was wearing his pajamas, and over them had put on his coat and trousers, and this leads to the belief that he had hurriedly dressed him and led him to investigate.

How he came to be shot is not known at present, but Coroner Brydone-Jack will hold an inquest Tuesday afternoon.

AUSTRALIAN LABOR UNREST

MELBOURNE, Nov. 12.—Unrest continues among the trades unions. A mass meeting of 2,000 railwaymen on Sunday threatened to start a strike in Cossack union, the Government readily re-enacts the reclassification board, with an amendment making the new award effective as from January 1, 1924. The meeting pledged its moral and financial support to the striking policemen of Melbourne.

Refuses Nomination

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The return of 10,000 men employed in the state printing plants, only 1,000 were working today notwithstanding the return of General von Seeckt, commander-in-chief of the national army, prohibiting the stopping of work. Only two newspapers made their appearance in Berlin during the day, Vorwärts and The Deutsche Zeitung.

BERLIN HAS TWO PAPERS ONLY

GLASGOW, Nov. 13.—Sir Thomas Paxton, former Lord Provost of Glasgow, chosen as the Unionist candidate for the Central Division of Glasgow in the by-election consequent upon the death of ex-Premier Bonar Law, declined the nomination.

Memorial Invocation

"WE pray Thee to unify Thine own divided people, that they may go forward to abolish war and to establish peace; to evangelize and to Christianize the world; that Thy Kingdom may come, from pole to pole; and that Thy will may be done in the whole earth, until all nations shall acknowledge Thy fatherhood and the brotherhood of man."—(Prayer of the Rev. Dr. Campbell at the Armistice Day memorial service last Sunday afternoon.)

EX-CROWN PRINCE PROVOKES MYSTERY

CROSSES DUTCH FRONTIER FOR OELS AND DISAPPEARS

Villagers Grow Restive at Non-Appearance and Decide to Postpone Show—Berlin Nonconformist

OELS, Nov. 12.—Mystery surrounds the whereabouts of Frederick William, who was due here tonight, having been expected to travel on the schedule laid out after crossing the Dutch frontier into Germany. The expectant villagers abandoned the job of waiting shortly after ten o'clock, after correspondents endeavored in every way to solve the enigma of William's non-appearance. Unless he shows up in the next twelve hours, it would be safe to say he will, at least, disappear from the news map and that the former Crown Prince will have been looked for elsewhere.

Citizens Don Festive Attire

Practically all of Oels' leading citizens, from the probate court judge down, had donned Prince Albert coats and high hats in honor of the former Crown Prince's homecoming. Foreign press correspondents and motion picture men descended upon the town by the score, in airplanes, motor cars or by railway. The hotels are filled to overflowing, and the proprietors obviously more pleased than the other citizens over the return of the town to the pre-war status.

No Official Reception

No official reception was planned for Frederick William, the Burgomaster not having been informed of his return. The exile comes back as a private citizen. Furthermore, the castle is not under the control of the local administration. It has its own government, comprised of officials who police the building and care for its maintenance on which Princess Cecilia, Frederick William's wife, and her children reside.

Cecile left the castle by motor car in the middle of the afternoon, accompanied by her two children, for an unknown destination. She returned to the castle just before 10 o'clock. This gave rise to the rumor that the Prince was putting up at a hunting lodge, six miles distant from the castle, which in pre-war days was a favorite haunt of his.

May be in hiding

It is also suggested that, fearing international complications because of his taking hasty leave of Holland in the face of the entente's protest, he has gone into seclusion somewhere in Germany, and is being safely concealed by his friends.

There are only twenty known Communists living in Oels, whose working population of approximately 10,000 is, however, seemingly anything but elated over the possibility of the town suddenly becoming a monarchialistic headquarters. The former King of Saxony, Frederick August, lives on an estate ten miles away.

The average man and woman group about the former Crown Prince to return.

He was fit to run out of Germany in her period of great trouble; why should he be allowed to return now?

The certain fact, however, whatever may be the case, is that Italy would abandon her close association with France.

The government authorities repudiate the recent talk about an impending break with France, urging that the position of the entente is a plenary economic conference jointly with the United States without French participation.

If such a step were taken British officials feel that Belgium would abandon her close association with France, nor is it clear that Italy would feel free to remain so closely associated with France.

The government authorities repudiate the recent talk about an impending break with France, urging that the position of the entente is a plenary economic conference jointly with the United States without French participation.

Although there is a great variety of opinion among government spokesmen as to whether dissolution should take place immediately or be deferred until February or even June, the general belief tonight is that the decision will be for December.

Hunger Strike Off

BELFAST, Nov. 12.—The hunger strike among the political prisoners in Ulster has been called off after having lasted seventeen days.

PREFERENCE TARIFF'S SCOPE IS ENLARGED

Lobster, Crayfish and Crabs to Rank with Canned Salmon—Pen Shells Duty on Dried Fruit

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Canned lobster, crayfish and crabs will rank with canned salmon in the preferential tariff offer made by the British Government to the recent Economic Conference to the other Dominions. When the offer has been given legislative effect all foreign products under this will be liable to duty of ten shillings per hundredweight, while Empire products will be admitted free.

The British Government has indicated that it would be prepared to propose to Parliament the imposition of a duty of ten shillings and six pence per hundredweight on foreign dried fruits, such as apples, pears and peaches, as well as dried pineapples.

Under the terms of the imperial preference arrangement, the original offer of exemption from duty on dried fruits applied to figs, raisins, plums and currants. Imported fruits from all parts of the Empire will be admitted free of duty to the British Isles.

MAN HUNT ENDS

VANCOUVER, Nov. 12.—Closely guarded by detectives a man, believed to be Dominick Deffino, 33, sentenced to electrocution in Scranton, Pa., and who escaped from the death cell in Burnaby County jail after shooting down four guards, was captured this morning. The Burns and McDunnell Penitentiary officials feared the man would make a clean getaway and left no trace behind them.

Conservative to Hold Convention At Saskatoon

REGINA, Nov. 13.—A convention to organize federally and provincially in Saskatchewan has been called by the Conservative to be held in Saskatoon, December 11. It is expected Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. S. F. Tolmie will be present.

Big Political Crisis Awaits Parliament

Reassembling of British House Today Marks Initiation of Campaign of Free Trade Versus Protection and Probable Immediate Appeal to Country on That Issue

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The British parliament will resume its labor tomorrow, without special ceremony, to proceed with the unfinished stages of humdrum measures like the workers' compensation and similar bills.

That was the prospect when the House of Commons adjourned for the summer recess, but the fates have ordained otherwise, and the members are reasonable under the editor of a great political crisis and probably the most momentous in the history of the Empire.

The British Government will henceforth devote itself to pressing domestic problems, awaiting a more propitious moment to reopen the reparations question. There is not a remote chance, it is declared, of the government's returning to France.

The British Government, however, has abandoned all thought of an immediate reparation inquiry. Great Britain has accepted the principle of the Washington treaty on the limitation of armament as approved by Great Britain and India, governing Dominion and India.

(e) Desirability of the development of the air forces in the several countries of the Empire upon such lines as will make it possible by means of adoption, as far as practicable, of a standard system of organization and training and use of uniform standards and patterns of army equipment, stores, with the exception of the type of aircraft for each part of the Empire, as it may determine to co-operate with other parts with the least possible delay and the greatest efficiency.

(f) In the application of these principles to the several parts of the Empire concerned the conference takes note of:

(a) The deep interest of the Commonwealth of Australia, New Zealand and India in the provision of a naval base at Sydney, and the desirability of ensuring the mobility to provide for the security of the territories and trade of the Empire in Eastern waters.

(b) Necessity for the maintenance of a safe passage along the great route to the East through the Mediterranean and Red Seas.

(c) Necessity for the maintenance of an air force of sufficient strength to give adequate protection against air attack by the strongest air forces within striking distance of her shores.

(d) The conference, while deeply concerned for the paramount importance of the maintenance of the safety and integrity of all parts of the Empire, earnestly desires, so far as is consistent with this consideration, the further limitation of armaments and trusts that no opportunity may be lost to promote this object.

Treaty Making Power

The treaty making powers of the dominions is handled in detail. A resolution deals first with the procedure of negotiating a treaty. It provides:

1. It is desirable that no treaty should be negotiated by any of the governments of the Empire without the consultation of the possible effects on other parts of the Empire.

2. If circumstances demand, on the Empire as a whole,

3. Before negotiations are opened with the intention of concluding the treaty, steps should be taken to insure that any of the other governments of the Empire likely to be involved

Continued on Page 3

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE PUBLISHES SUMMARY

No New Departure Indicated in Method of Consultations as to Extra-Empire Affairs During Recesses, But a Common Understanding Reached Upon Main Heads of Foreign Policy

Limitation of Armaments Principle Was Approved

LONDON, Nov. 12.—How the main Imperial Conference stood on foreign policy, defence and other questions before it, and what its decisions today were, are revealed in an official summary of the proceedings published

The summary indicates no new departure in the machinery for consultation with the Dominions on foreign policy between conferences. It says, however, that the conference did not terminate its sittings until each subject of foreign relations had been carefully explored and "a common understanding reached upon the main heads of foreign policy."

As Regards German Unity

The conference regarded any policy which would result in breaking up the unity of the German state

"The Gift Center"

Christmas Will Soon Be Here

Now is the time to select your gifts for Christmas before the rush.

We have a pleasing assortment of useful gifts suitable for those whom you wish to remember. We cordially invite you to inspect our display.

Whether your purchase be large or small we endeavor to give you the best service possible.

A deposit reserves any article for Xmas.

JUST ARRIVED
A limited number of Mah Jong Sets, complete $5.00 with set of instructions

Mitchell & Duncan, Ltd.
JEWELERS
Cor. Government and View Streets
Phone 675

"MANGELS" "MANGELS"
Another shipment of Mangels to hand. Price, per ton $12.00
709 Yates Street Sylvester Feed Company Telephone 413

We Are Farmers

Selling Direct to the Public
Try Our 4% Butterfat Quality of Milk—the Milk that is Richer in Cream.

Vancouver Island Milk Producers' Association
530 North Park St. Phone 663

PEORIA, ILL., Nov. 12.—A telephone call to the Peoria police early today said the safe in the bank of Minonk, Ill., was blown open by an automobile load of bandits, who escaped with $12,000 in Liberty Bonds and $1,000 in cash.

WILSON'S STRICTURES RESENTED BY FRENCH

Ex-President's Reference to Versailles Treaty and Waste Paper Particularly Distasteful

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The tenor of ex-President Wilson's address broadcast throughout the United States Saturday night, created a disagreeable impression here. This feeling was not concealed in official quarters, although there was studious reserve in the comments forthcoming from them. Mr. Wilson's reference to France as "King of the world" of the treaty of Versailles was particularly resented. One person familiar with the French government's views declared that this statement by the former President was unfortunate, since the only thing he had offered France in exchange for the measures of security he refused to give her was treated afterwards as a "scrap of paper."

WILLING TO WORK

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The recent statement that women who are university graduates are going to the Dominions to undertake domestic service appears to be the fact the number of women of gentle birth and advanced education among the parties proceeding to Canada during the week-end all declared their readiness to accept household or similar work.

EVERSHARP
matched by
WAHL PEN

IMPORTANT. A pen is no better than its lead. Don't buy a pen lead in your Eversharp or Wahl Pen which are recharged at the finest metal dealers. They are sold every year. They are the pens used in the best schools. Get them at higher prices. Look for the name on each. Ask also to see Wahl rubber pens. $2.75 up.

Made in Canada by THE WAHL CO., LTD., Toronto

Armistice Messages Heard at Churches

Big Congregations Attend Memorial Ceremonies—Special Sermons Are Given—Solidarity of Empire and Need for United Christian Tolerance Is Dominant Theme

In almost every church in the city the two-minute silence was observed at the opening of the service on Sunday morning, several of the congregations in response to earlier announcements from their pastors gathering a few minutes before eleven o'clock so that the doors might be closed during the consecrated interval. Special music was also part of nearly all services.

The British Empire, courageously led, he a focus for the world's forces of goodwill, was the dominant note struck in Dean C. S. Quinton's sermon at Christ Church Cathedral.

At Christ Church Cathedral

Choosing for his theme, "The International Situation," Dean Quinton said it was evident that the peace treaty was unsatisfactory. General Smuts, who signed it, said: "It weighs heavily on my conscience. I signed it under protest, and with a sense of foreboding of future calamities." During the few months swift dramatic events had taken place in defiance of the treaty. France had illegally and mistakenly occupied the Ruhr, and Italy had wantonly and wickedly seized Corfu. Meanwhile nations of Europe seemed smitten with a sort of creeping paralysis, and we a party individualism imposed Europe was like a drunken man, blindly waving his arms in the darkness and heading towards an awful precipice.

France Knows Her Mind

France alone seemed to know her own mind. Our heads might not be with her, but our hearts were. But she was developing a militaristic policy that boded ill for the peace of Europe. Her naval and military armaments were growing at an alarming rate. She has partly subsidized, and for military purpose, those new-made states that cling to the skirts of Germany and Austria.

"There are more than 10 million and a half more men under arms in Europe than there were in August, 1914," declared Dean Quinton. "And Great Britain, as suggested by a recent striking cartoon in Punch, only seems to be getting out of the hole it made in the treaty of Versailles was partially responsible. One person familiar with the French government's views declared that this statement by the former President was unfortunate, since the only thing he had offered France in exchange for the measures of security he refused to give her was treated afterwards as a "scrap of paper."

"God has no pets amongst nations or men. Another war prosecuted with the infernal aid of gases and germs might obliterate civilization. In this case for the sake of peace the first and most necessary task if civilization was to be saved.

A very large congregation was present at the morning as well as the evening service. At the latter, Rev. Dr. F. Howay Taylor, of the China Inland Mission, was the preacher.

St. Andrew's Cathedral

At St. Andrew's Cathedral on Sunday morning, the High Mass was offered in memory of the Armistice, and the thanksgiving for the end of the war. Before the offering, Rev. Father Anselm Wood read the names of those members of the congregation who laid down their lives during the war, and prayer was offered for the repose of their souls. Father Wood began by pleading that faith with the returned men should not be broken, but that the promises made to him when he left to risk all for his country should be fulfilled to the letter. He then proceeded to discuss the efforts towards peace made by Pope Benedict XV during the course of the late war, and by his successor, Pope Plus XI ever since.

League "Ignored God"

He argued that one of the outstanding reasons for the apparent failure of the League of Nations was that it had not taken God into consideration in its deliberations, but had confined them solely to political and economic conditions. Every suggestion coming from the Pope is concerned only with the moral aspect of the question concerned, and for this reason he was not invited to speak at the League. He was excluded from membership in the League of Nations; it would seem, however, that this mistake will shortly be remedied. By reason of the fact that the Pope is the subject of no government, and at the same time is free from any of the material cares of the world, he can contribute much over this question of peace. A majority of these people acknowledged that the one hope for humanity lay in the ideals of Jesus. But these ideals could only be carried out by those who were His followers. The world seemed to have drifted away from His spirit, a spirit which was felt more during the war, but from which the world was getting away. Once more it was time for the world to rethink the position. One could never have men take toward each other. The individual must cultivate the spirit of peace in himself, seeking to ally himself with those organizations that were aiming to secure the brotherhood of the nations to all as the Golden Rule.

The sermon was brought to a close at eleven o'clock, and two minutes of silence were kept by the congregation on their knees. The service closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

At St. Columba Church

"Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend" was the subject of Rev. J. H. White's sermon at St. Columba Church, Oak Bay. In order to understand and appreciate the sacrifices that were made during the war so that they should never forget these, it was necessary for people to recall what led up to the war. Germany was advancing in her schools and was thoroughly imbued with the idea, that she was the coming nation of the world; that might was right; and that Nietzsche was right in his philosophy which argued the glorification of material efficiency and brute force. The ideal that justice and right and liberty must be subordinate to this view. Pride, ruthless strength, love of battle, were the marks of evolving man, the German had held. On the contrary, the British Empire and those allied with them in the war, believed in the exaltation of righteousness, and the ideal that justice and right and liberty must be subordinate to this view.

Mr. White recalled that the German war-lords had counted on disaffection within the British Empire. But instead of that there had come from the remotest parts of the union offers of assistance, and the result was that over half a million men, over 60,000 of whom had made the supreme sacrifice. On that day they were met to honor the dead, these men who "lay down their lives for their friends." And they must not forget that they had a trust to fulfill; they must carry on the work of reconstruction, and, among other things, give every care to those who had come back from the war suffering from great disabilities.

Dr. Clem Davies

In his armistice sermon, eulogizing

all the dead in the person of "The Unknown Soldier," the Centenial pastor declared that the death of those brave young lads was a mystery. "They stood on the threshold of life, with their tasks packed with latent treasures," he said. "Many of them were full of ardor and ideals and their early death has impoverished the world. What books those young authors might have written, what poems those potential artists might have penned, what liberties they might have made glorious, what pictures they might have painted, of what tools they might have invented.

"But some things were settled by those boys. Militarism is dead, or if it is, it is dead along with them. Beside the road along which the armistice marches to higher and a more glorious day. Never again will any nation pile munitions mountains high and drill her sons in the science of destruction. Never again will Austria be dead. Henceforth the free people of the world will rule and will not be pawns in the game of chess carried on by secret diplomacy. Never again will people permit themselves to be sacrificed like dull dumb sheep to the will of the ambitions of another's ambition. Forever has gone the time when any nation will refer to a treaty as a scrap of paper. Henceforth the free peoples of the earth in a League of Nations will stand together in combat to the death any nation that seeks to revive militarism or autocracy."

"Those boys did not die in vain," he declared. "Italy is cleansed and no Austrian soldier walks the streets of Venice threatening cripples. Poland is freed from long and bitter sufferings. Russia is now established as a 'country' and not a road that any international highwayman may run amok across. Once more the flags of France and Britain and the United States stand unchallenged in the world. No longer do we hear the 'boche' or 'Lustianie.' In six years we have come from the uttermost pain and sorrow to hope, and we are passing to joy. And all this is the fruitage of these soldiers who in death carried their wounds to God."

The Dead Live

"We say the boys are dead. Never! Is Kitchener dead? Is 'Tommy' dead? Is Wellington dead? Are the heroes of Waterloo and Crimea dead? Are these millions of lads who sleep in France and Flanders dead? They were never more alive than at this vibrant moment. Their bodies rest peace, but their name and their soul liveth for evermore."

"They bid us 'Take up their quarrel with the foe,' and lift up the torch. What is that torch? It is the torch of 'war against war.' Let us enter a brotherhood of races to wipe out the curse of war. There is only one way to heal the wounds of the world and that is to return to kindness and good will, with malice towards none and charity for all. Let us expel hatred from our heart, and while we exact full toll from Germany for her crime against the world, let the world will understand that militarism doesn't pay, at the same time let us put away all passion and revenge and cleanse our soul of every evil thing. With one accord we have agreed to help each other, let us lift our hands to God and ask that peace and mercy may come and fall like God's sweet rain upon the earth. Then with the League of Nations, not a farce but a fact, we may go forth and win with confidence that henceforth when we meet the world for the earth for the kingdom of this world are becoming the kingdoms of God and His Christ."

Emmanuel Church

The responsibility of the individual in bringing about the desired world peace was pointed out by Rev. William Stevens, pastor of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, in his Sunday morning sermon. Mr. Stevenson is secretary to the local branch of the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the churches, and spoke on the mission of a world at peace. He said: "The present situation in the world is such that the world cannot confide in the world's great conflict could send a message. It would be: 'We charge you never to let this catastrophe overtake humanity again.' At the present time thoughts of men and women of all lands are centered around the world, and over this question of peace. A majority of these people acknowledged that the one hope for humanity lay in the ideals of Jesus. But these ideals could only be carried out by those who were His followers. The world seemed to have drifted away from His spirit, a spirit which was felt more during the war, but from which the world was getting away. Once more it was time for the world to rethink the position. One could never have men take toward each other. The individual must cultivate the spirit of peace in himself, seeking to ally himself with those organizations that were aiming to secure the brotherhood of the nations to all as the Golden Rule."

The sermon was brought to a close at eleven o'clock, and two minutes of silence were kept by the congregation on their knees. The service closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

At St. Columba

"Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend" was the subject of Rev. J. H. White's sermon at St. Columba Church, Oak Bay. In order to understand and appreciate the sacrifices that were made during the war so that they should never forget these, it was necessary for people to recall what led up to the war. Germany was advancing in her schools and was thoroughly imbued with the idea, that she was the coming nation of the world; that might was right; and that Nietzsche was right in his philosophy which argued the glorification of material efficiency and brute force. The ideal that justice and right and liberty must be subordinate to this view.

Mr. White recalled that the German war-lords had counted on disaffection within the British Empire. But instead of that there had come from the remotest parts of the union offers of assistance, and the result was that over half a million men, over 60,000 of whom had made the supreme sacrifice. On that day they were met to honor the dead, these men who "lay down their lives for their friends."

And they must not forget that they had a trust to fulfill; they must carry on the work of reconstruction, and, among other things, give every care to those who had come back from the war suffering from great disabilities.

Dr. Clem Davies

In his armistice sermon, eulogizing

Van Heusen Collars

Smart and Dressy
Van Camp
Van Esse
Van Lowe
Van Dyke

Each

$5.50

A Shipment of Snappy Suits For Young Men

Has just been received. Smart models in straight form styles, in both single and double breasted. The materials shown are fine, pin-striped worsteds, a fine, plain brown viscose; also a neat herringbone worsted in both brown and blue. The prices range from $37.50 to $39.00.

W. J. Wilson
COTHIERS TO MEN AND BOYS SINCE 1862
1117 to 1221 GOVERNMENT STREET VICTORIA B.C.

1208 Douglas St. We Can Fit and Suit You. Phone 1125

The New Crystal Cloth Slipper

It has the Spanish heel
Trimmed with pretty silver kid

CATHCART'S
High-Grade Footwear for Men, Women and Children
WM. CATHCART & CO., Ltd.

ARMOTOR SELF-OILING WINDMILLS, ENGINES, PUMPS, REDWOOD TANKS, PIPE AND PIPE FITTINGS
Estimates Given On Complete Water-Supply Outfits

GEO. T. MICHELL & SON, LTD.
The Farmer's Supply House, 1417 Broad St. Agents, Massey-Harris Co., Ltd. Phone 1392

TO SELL PROPERTY

A freshly painted house commands attention and effects a sale of house which would otherwise be overlooked.

See Newton's Work Department
It is Efficient and Reliable

S. R. NEWTON PAINT CO.

560 Yates

Phone 7

Alien Law Valid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The alien land laws of California and Washington, prohibiting aliens ineligible to citizenship from owning or leasing land, were declared valid and unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court.

The two-minutes silence was observed in Night Attire

NELSON, B.C., Nov. 11.—Hugh Deering, on a ranch near here, went to sleep last night leaving his lamp burning. He awoke to find his house in flames, and escaped in his night attire.

Escaped in Night Attire

WICHITA, KAN., Nov. 11.—Hugh Deering, on a ranch near here, went to sleep last night leaving his lamp burning. He awoke to find his house in flames, and escaped in his night attire.

Escaped in Night Attire

JO-TO

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht today for a conference with former Emperor William.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Dr. Karan, an official of the Ministry of Interior, left for Dordrecht

Speaking of Fish Floats

We Make Them
In All Sizes

Master Craftsmen of Woodwork Lemon, Gonnason Co. Victoria, B.C.
Limited Phone 77

263 Beechwood Avenue For Sale at $2,450.00

A Nice 5-Room Bungalow. Near Sea. A Cheap Buy. On Terms.

J. C. BRIDGMAN, Agent 604 Broughton Street

FAIRFIELD Olive Street

Good House, containing 6 rooms, den and bath, open fireplace in front room and many built-in features.

Basement with cement floor and footings; furnace and wash tubs.

Full lot. Improvement taxes paid. Near car line.

Advantageous Buy at $3,000

ARTHUR COLES
VICTORIA, B.C.
1205 BROAD ST.

Furnished House to Let

Drawing-Room, Sitting-Room, Dining-Room, Hall and Cloakroom, 6 Bedrooms, Maids' Room, 3 Bathrooms, large Basement, hot water heating, tennis lawn, kitchen garden, orchard, two hundred and fifty feet water frontage, garage for two cars. Apply for appointment to inspect premises to

Box 1087, Colonist

BIG SACRIFICE

33 ACRES MILES from City Hall. 1 under cultivation. Good timber. All fenced. Four runnen houses, barn, chicken house, 22 beehives, fruit trees, small fruits. Running water. Price $1,000 cash. CAN YOU BEAT THIS? For particulars apply

BERT G. ROBINSON, Estate Agent, 1217 Broad St.

Carpet Cleaning
The Hamite-Bach Method
Note—Our Only Address:
917 FORT STREET
We Buy, Sell, Exchange Carpets and Rugs.
Island Window and Carpet Cleaning Co.
W. H. Hughes Phone 3815

I-IDEAL
In "Our Own Brand" Butter.
The Ideal Market,
J. Bethell, Prop.

Fibre Tubing
Our new stock of tubing in the following sizes just received: 3 in., 3½ in., 3¾ in. and 4 in.

C-W RADIO SERVICE COMPANY LTD.
719 Fort St. Phone 3201

Savory's Floral Shop,
—PHONE 1341—
DOUGLAS ST. VICTORIA, B.C.
Up-to-the-Minute Services and Decorations

FOR SALE
MOTOR LAUNCH—Length 21 ft.; beam, 6 ft.; Regal Engine, 3 ½ h.p.; first-class condition. $3,000. Trial by Appointment. Phone 7M Keating.

The Cameron Lumber Co. Limited

Short length stock of all descriptions in Shiplap, Boards, Flooring, Ceiling and Siding, at attractive prices.

Building Material of All Descriptions
Prompt Delivery
Phone 864 or 3760
Mills on Garibaldi Road

Best Wellington COAL
Victoria Fuel Co., Ltd.
1203 Broad St.—Phone 1377
A. R. Graham E. M. Brown

VICTORIA BAGGAGE COMPANY
H.M. Mail Contractors

Our Specialty
Furniture Moved, Crated and Shipped
Pool Cars for Prairies and All Points East

We Can Save You Time and Money
Largest Vans in the City
Phone 2505 506 Fort St.

Custom officers are seizing much vodka on ships coming to Pacific Coast ports from the Orient.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF CHINA NOW SEEKS REST

Li Yuan Hung Proceeds to Japanese Hot Spring for a Rest From Troubles at Home

Nov. 12.—Li Yuan Hung, former President of China, twice ousted by militarists of China, twice Nagasaki, and is proceeding to Beppu Hot Springs, in Southwestern Japan, for a rest, according to advices received here.

Ex-President Li, commander of the land forces of the revolution, which overthrew the Manchu dynasty, had been living in retirement in Tientsin since his spectacular flight from Peking June 1 last, when militarists issued a final warning that the capital would be taken unless the president left. He first became a resident in 1916, being deposed the following year by a similar coup d'etat. In 1922, in response to a nation-wide demand he returned to Peking and the present, in the effort to reunite the country, sought to negotiate in a manifesto that it was his inclination to stay until death in Tientsin. His home, hampered by financial difficulties, he waged a losing fight during his administration against the provincial military systems foes of the Peking Government, and cabinet dissensions.

The retirement of Li to Japan apparently ends his opposition to the election of Tsao Kun as president. When Tsao Kun was elected on October 5, by parliament at Peking, former President Li was among those who charged the election was the result of bribery.

Recently it was announced that Li contemplated going to Japan for a rest. The announcement was made shortly after a visit with Li by Tan Shang Ming, a protege of Tsao's. Opponents of Tsao are charging that Li has been bought off.

MINISTER EXPLAINS KILLING OF BUFFALO

Shooting Done Under Park Official Supervision by Practiced Marks-Men—No Indians Employed

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Reports that cruel methods of killing buffalo were employed at Wainwright Park recently to add a touch of the spectacular to a scene which was being held for the benefit of foreign visitors, were absolutely denied by Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, Saturday, when he issued a statement explaining the whole incident.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

Next year the department intends to remove 2,000 young buffalo to a reserve on the shores of the MacKenzie River. This will still further relieve congestion at Wainwright. Mr. Stewart stated. Deer in the Federal game reserves of the West had become so plentiful that something would have to be done to thin out the herds, he said.

It was proposed that a large number of these animals be turned into the northern woods after the hunting season was over, so that they would have a full year to become accustomed to their new environment and to develop a fear of man.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

Next year the department intends to remove 2,000 young buffalo to a reserve on the shores of the MacKenzie River. This will still further relieve congestion at Wainwright. Mr. Stewart stated. Deer in the Federal game reserves of the West had become so plentiful that something would have to be done to thin out the herds, he said.

It was proposed that a large number of these animals be turned into the northern woods after the hunting season was over, so that they would have a full year to become accustomed to their new environment and to develop a fear of man.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash of primitive color to the scene, but the red men had nothing whatever to do with the killing of the buffalo.

The Minister explained that the shooting was done under the supervision of park officials by the same marksmen who performed on the last year. It was true Indians were photographed in the wake of the herd to add a dash

The Daily ColonistEstablished 1858
The Colonist Publishing Company, Limited Liability

J. L. TAFT, Business Manager

Subscription Rates by Mail and District Correspondence to Victoria, B.C.
 Yearly ..... $1.50
 Monthly ..... 12.00
 Half-Yearly ..... 6.00
 Quarterly ..... 3.00
 All subscription rates payable in advance
 Mail or cable address to "Colonist," to all remittances direct to The Daily Colonist, 1811-18 Broad Street, Victoria, B.C.

Tuesday, November 13, 1923

PENITENTIARY AMENITIES

The first thing that strikes even the casual observer in connection with the attempted escape of three individuals from the New Westminster Penitentiary is how it was that boys such as Smith and Burton should have been allowed into such close association with a criminal like Van Horst. Obviously that association must have been a particularly close one as it permitted the three to conspire, and conspire to such purpose, that they eluded the vigilance of the officials. There must be something at fault in a system which permits hardened criminals to mix in prison with immature boys, no matter what may have been the crimes of the latter. One might have thought that Van Horst would have been the subject of especial vigilance at New Westminster, but such does not seem to have been the case. He has before shown the authorities in British Columbia very conclusively, that stone walls do not a prison make, unless there are other and unwinking precautions employed as well.

The time is ripe to point out that British Columbia's chief prison stronghold is too close to the American side. Its location affords too many temptations for escape. Probably so long as there is a New Westminster Penitentiary there will be escapes attempted and even effected from it. The question of the vigilance of its warders has been raised again and again in connection with past escapes. It should be raised on the present occasion if only in the light of the close association which has been allowed to spring up between Van Horst and the two youthful criminals who made a break for liberty with him. It is questionable if, in our prison treatment, we have the right method of dealing with criminals. Within the meaning of the law both Burton and Smith are "infants." The supposition was that they were segregated at New Westminster from criminals of mature age, and especially from criminals with a lengthy record of hardened crime. It is a serious matter this, serious to the boys themselves, to their parents and to society at large. Prisons have a twofold purpose, namely, punishment and reform. A prison system which permits such an association as that which has sprung up between Van Horst and Burton and Smith most assuredly calls for reform.

PLAY THE GAME

Certain happenings on association football fields in this city of recent occurrence call to mind a spirit that is abroad that does not savor of true sportsmanship. There has been intentionally rough play; there have been what appeared flagrant attempts to violate the rules; what is more venial still there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

Surely it is possible for our players to play association football as a game, and as it should be played. We have referees here who know their duties and who have been carrying them out. In the past certain players have been warned about their participation in foul happenings, but they have been warned against taking issue with the referee, and it may be mentioned incidentally that that is something which is not done by sportsmen. Alter all, to anyone who enters any athletic pastime simply for the sport it holds it is not a difficult matter to play the game. Referees' decisions must be accepted in a sportsmanlike way even when the individual or side particularly affected may think they are undeserved. Amateur sport must be conducted on clean and sportsmanlike lines if it is to appeal to a sport-loving public.

POTATO SHOW

The importance, from an agricultural standpoint, of the British Columbia Potato Show and Educational Seed Exhibit to be held in the Arcade Building during the next few days cannot be emphasized too much. Within the past few years there has been a remarkable growth in the attention paid to potato culture, and particularly to the production of certified seed, in this Province. At the forthcoming exhibition there will be from 200 to 300 entries, by far the largest list ever assembled in British Columbia, and the whole affair has been so planned that it will prove of undoubted educative value. The fame of British Columbia's potatoes has gone far afield. The certified seed growers in this Province have no difficulty in disposing of their crop and were the American duty on this seed removed the exports to the United States would largely increase in volume. As it is there is a market for all the certified seed grown here and that is one branch of our agricultural industry which can be described as flourishing.

The coming exhibit is being held under the auspices of the Provincial Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the local Potato Growers' Association and the Chamber of Commerce. The agricultural group of the latter organization is taking a particularly lively interest in the event. A series of instructive addresses has been arranged on various branches of potato culture and on the agricultural situation as a whole. The gathering holds an attraction for both urban and rural dwellers for the lowly potato is a necessity of life and is grown extensively on town lots as well as in the open spaces. There is no doubt that a filip to the industry will result from the exhibit in the Arcade Building. The potato has advertised British Columbia before now. It is distinctly to the advantage of the people of this Province to advertise the potato.

FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Sir Sidney Low writing in the London Weekly Dispatch draws attention to the probability of an early revival of monarchy in Europe. In this connection he says that moment may be Prince Rupprecht proclaimed King of Bavaria, and that Hungary would restore the Crown of St. Stephen if it did not fear foreign complications. It is the latter apprehension, also, which prevents half Prussia declaring in favor of a resumption of power by one of the Hohenzollerns. Sir Sidney says "enlightened persons" hailed the disappearance of monarchies as a beneficent stage in the evolution of that New World which was to shake itself free of the phantasms and fantasies of the discredited past. It is a fact, however, he points out, that no matter how explained, monarchy has been the form of government to which the vast majority of the human race, throughout all recorded history, has addicted itself. Republics, he shows, have seldom lasted long except in quite small communities. In fact, he says that there are only two great modern republics, the United States and France. The former is only 150 years old and the latter only half a century. He supposes they both have a long lease of life before them, but points out that their predecessors have been evanescent. Almost every nation of Europe, writes Sir Sidney, has had its spell of republicanism at one time or another, and relapsed again to the sceptre and the throne. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

Despite the report on the subject by Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador to the United States, conditions at Ellis Island are not seem to have improved. British emigrants are still complaining bitterly. Not only are the conditions in some respects filthy, but the food is insufficient, according to those who have suffered. The emigrants are packed close there and have to sleep twelve in a cage. That these conditions should persist is an extraordinary commentary on American civilization.

Lord Allenby, who ought to know, says never has the prestige of England been so high in the Near East as it is today. Those who have looked to England, His Lordship points out, know that she has kept and always will keep her word. That policy is one of the secrets of a nation's prestige.

The Kansas City Star asks how many women walked into the prison when they registered at the polls, as Mrs. Fidelia Travers did. She gave her name and then the registrar asked for her age. "Over 21" she replied cautiously. To the query as to where she was born she said in Missouri. "Have you lived long in the present?" asked the registrar. "One year." "In the city?" "Ten years." "In the state?" "Thirty-one years."

Major-General Sir W. Sefton Brainerd says that within two years he hopes to see airships making the voyage from Britain to India in 100 hours and from Britain to Australia in 250 hours. The development of Empire passenger traffic and commerce will be facing a revolution if his hope is fulfilled.

Lloyd's News, one of the best known of the London Sunday papers, will be called The Sunday News from next January. Lloyd's has been widely read for the past 80 years. For family reasons it was made a condition that at the end of a certain period the old name should disappear and a different one take its place. The period mentioned ends this year.

Bootleggers have been placed in the extra-hazardous class by a Philadelphia insurance company.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Yesterday, according to statutory decree, the people of Canada were ordered to give thanks unto the Lord for a bountiful harvest and for all other good gifts received in due season. Whatever may have been the case in other parts of Canada, the people of Vancouver Island did not observe Thanksgiving Day in the manner prescribed. They did not attend formal services of praise, not at least in great masses; but if the hearts of the people were cheerful with them as they reflected upon the beautiful Summer and the bounteous Autumn now at an end, according to the calendar, perhaps the God of Good Things may not consider the day so very ill spent.

The fact of the matter is, and we might as well be quite candid about it if the Government which sets the day of Thanksgiving is not, that Thanksgiving Day is neither a British nor a Canadian institution. It originated in the New England States in the days when the people were of quite a different spirit, and indeed almost entirely of a different race, from the northeastern Americans of the present day. Those people were a God-fearing people in the literal sense of the term; and they put the fear of the devil into all who came under their jurisdiction; but they were true to the faith that was in them according to their training and understanding.

The Puritans of the United States established Thanksgiving Day as a holy day; their successors have made it a holiday. The Fathers attended the meeting-house for devotional and praise-giving purposes; and, then, duty to the Most High performed with the utmost punctiliousness, they indulged their carnal appetites with Turkey and pumpkin pie. Thanksgiving Day today is chiefly a day given over to sport; turkey and pumpkin pie as a feature of it still survive, and probably will live as long as the Great Republic that has developed from the original thirteen states.

Like many American institutions, some very good, many not by any means so good, Thanksgiving Day has crossed the line into Canada. Here also the original idea of the day "is more honored in the breach than the observance." The day is a day of enjoyment, not a day of devotion.

Our young men play football; many of our young men and women, and a continually increasing number of our men and women of all ages and conditions, play golf.

Possibly some of our readers may think that this subject of golf is becoming somewhat flat, stale and unprofitable, if not actually nauseating. Yet the subject is a most important one to the people of Victoria and may become possibly a most important one to the City of Victoria.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is not a shadow of doubt that the fortunes of football in this city will suffer a decline. The desire is to build those fortunes up, not to knock them down; yet foul play and insubordination on the playing fields constitute the sure and certain way of disgusting spectators. It is very bad for the game that there should be such a spirit abroad. What is wanted to cleanse the sport is the drastic elimination of the spirit of un-sportsmanship. In saying this it should also be pointed out that there is too great a habit among spectators of "ragging" the referees in association football matches. That practice is also, of un-sportsmanship because it has a tendency to make the task of those in charge of matches a more difficult one than it should be.

The fact is continually being dinned into our ears upon the streets and in all public places that there is only one way to increase our population.

It is by establishing institutions for the employment of men who carry dinner pails. What about the establishment of institutions which attract

men, and women too, who already have filled their dinner pails? When there have been arguments with the referee, and on Saturday last there was an instance where a player refused to obey the ruling of a referee, with the result that the latter, very rightly, declared the game at an end. If these methods are persisted in there is

A GREAT BIG SAVING

TIRES TIRES TIRES

30 x 3½ Cord
All First Grade—No Seconds
Our Price $12.95

30 x 3½ Senior Cord. Reg. $18.50.
Our Price $10.75

New Stock—Latest Design Tread—Fully Guaranteed.

Furthermore

Purchasers of these tires will be protected against price reduction for a period of sixty days from November 1st, 1923, and we will rebate on application percentage decrease on purchase price should any change in list price become effective.

Thomas Plimley, Ltd.
Broughton Street Phone 697 Victoria, B.C.

For Years The Kirkham Stores

Have been popular, and today they are more so than ever.

PRICE QUALITY SERVICE*SPECIALS FOR TODAY

Bran, 100-lb. sack	$1.65	Loin Pork Chops, lb.	31¢
Maple Ridge Peas. Fine quality, 2 tins	31¢	Round Steak, lb., 18 and	13¢
Golden Star Tea, 1-lb. pkg.	56¢	Lean Pot Roasts, lb.	10¢

Robin Hood Flour, 49-lb. sack,	for	Dr. Price's Baking Powder, 12-oz.	44¢
--------------------------------	-----	-----------------------------------	-----

H. O. KIRKHAM & CO., LTD.
612 Fort Two Sanitary Stores 749 YatesThe Sandringham Lunch Room
516 Government Street, Opposite Post Office

Will Reopen for Business on Monday, the 12th

Cheaper to Buy a
"RADIO" FURNACE

CHEAPER because it is built to last.

CHEAPER because replacement parts are for sale here.

CHEAPER because it's easy on fuel.

CHEAPER because you only need renew bottom half of the firebox.

Remember it is made in Victoria.

Albion Stove Works
2101 Government St. LIMITED Phone 91Because

We want you to drink the finest beer that's brewed in the West—a beverage of sparkling purity, consistently maintained at the high peak of perfection by the Million-Dollar Brewery—the most hygienic, up-to-the-minute plant on the Pacific Coast.

Give your order today—free delivery in Victoria.VANCOUVER BREWERIES LIMITED*Cappuccino PALE"The Beer without a Peer"*

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

WEDDINGS

McCallum-Russell
Miss Estelle Fern McCallum, daughter of Mr. J. D. McCallum, Vancouver, became the bride of Mr. George Williamson Russell late night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Russell, 1037 Richardson Street. Rev. W. J. Sippell officiated at the ceremony. The bride was accompanied by Miss Olive Jones, who gave away her father. Captain George Bloomfield supported the groom. The couple left on the midnight boat for a honeymoon in Vancouver and Seattle.

Man is not liable for debts contracted by his wife prior to marriage.

A New York man attempted to steal a cobra from the zoo.

Beauty Unparalleled

The wonderful, reddest, smoothest complexion is the result of the appearance of youth. Results are immediate. Exerts a soft and soothing action. 20 fl. oz. $1.50. Send 10c for Trial Size. FERT. & BEAUTY CO., Montreal.

Gentle Oriental Cream

City & District

Secondo Mr. Sourrah—Mr. Herbert Kent succeeds Mr. Percy B. Sourrah, who has resigned as chairman of the Retail Merchants' Patriotic Committee, in that post.

Rifle Association—There will be a meeting of the Victoria Rifle Association in the men's recreation room of the 5th Regiment, C.G.A., at the Drill Hall on Tuesday, November 13, at 8:15 p.m. Colonel R. J. Birdwhistle, of the D.C.R.A., Ottawa, will be present. All those interested in rifle shooting are invited to attend.

Mental Defectives—Dr. J. G. Shearer, chief executive officer of the Social Service Council in Toronto, an organization which embraces all the Protestant, Catholic, Labor and other organizations, will speak on Wednesday night on "The Menace and Care of the Mentally Defective." His address will be given at the First Presbyterian Church.

Died in Local Hotel—In order to investigate the circumstances surrounding the sudden death of Mr. Robert L. MacLennan, manager of the Admiral Steamship Line, whose body was discovered Saturday night lying on the floor of his room in the Dominion Hotel, an inquest will be opened at 11 o'clock this morning in the Sandus Funeral establishment. The deceased was a resident of 166 20th Avenue North, Seattle, and was a well-known shipping man on the Pacific Coast.

Sunday Morning Fire—Many people were expecting the fire department siren to sound at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning, to announce the arrival of the Armistice. Instead, instead, the fire department had to be summoned from a bad attack of speeditis, when the siren commenced shrieking at 10:30 o'clock. The alarm was signalling a fire, however, which occurred in the boiler room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. It was extinguished before much damage was done and before the morning service.

The crowd in Parliament Square was not less than three thousand people, but many more than those lined the route of the parade from the Public Library, down Yates and Government Streets and across the Causeway to the site of the memorial services. The Armistice bell was rung to signal the beginning of the Armistice Day services. The hymn to be sung should be printed and distributed. While the hymns sung yesterday were such old and well-known favorites as "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," it was noticeable that after the first verse there was an apparent uncertainty as to the words of the hymn.

The crowd in Parliament Square was not less than three thousand people, but many more than those lined the route of the parade from the Public Library, down Yates and Government Streets and across the Causeway to the site of the memorial services. The Armistice bell was rung to signal the beginning of the Armistice Day services. The hymn to be sung should be printed and distributed. While the hymns sung yesterday were such old and well-known favorites as "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," it was noticeable that after the first verse there was an apparent uncertainty as to the words of the hymn.

Canadian Scottish—The 14th Canadian Scottish Battalion will parade at the Drill Hall tonight at 8:15 o'clock. Guests will be admitted without rifles. Companies will form up on their respective grounds at 8:15 o'clock, to be inspected by their commanders and marched on their markers on the advance sounding at 8:30 o'clock. Miniature range practice will be held under C.Q.M.S. A. E. Ashton. The parade will end at 9 o'clock.

The swimming pool at the Army will be available for the use of members on that night. The efficiency test in last week's Lewis gun examination resulted as follows: No. 4 Co., 97.50 per cent; No. 3 Co., 93.33 per cent; No. 2 Co., 82.50 per cent; and No. 1 Co., 50 per cent.

Tribute to Departed Heroes

"We are here to pay a tribute of respect to our departed heroes, here to honor the memory of our soldiers and sailors who fell and saved not only Great Britain, France, Italy, Serbia, and Roumania, but the world over. The occasion," Rev. Dr. J. Sculby presiding, "the programme was in the hands of Mr. Ira Dilworth, who also acted as accompanist. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Shaw, Mr. E. R. Locks, Mr. C. G. Present, while Mr. Nash Woodward recited and violin selections were rendered by Mr. Robert Stevenson. The burning of the mortuary was carried out by Rev. C. M. Tate and Mr. Justin Gilbert, assisted by the youngest daughters of seven of the church trustees. Following the ceremony delicious refreshments were served.

Mortgage Burned—The long-standing mortgage against the James Bay Methodist Church was burned last evening with suitable ceremony. There were about two hundred persons present on the occasion. Rev. Dr. J. Sculby presiding. The programme was in the hands of Mr. Ira Dilworth, who also acted as accompanist. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Shaw, Mr. E. R. Locks, Mr. C. G. Present, while Mr. Nash Woodward recited and violin selections were rendered by Mr. Robert Stevenson. The burning of the mortuary was carried out by Rev. C. M. Tate and Mr. Justin Gilbert, assisted by the youngest daughters of seven of the church trustees. Following the ceremony delicious refreshments were served.

Cards and Dancing—The regular weekly military five hundred and dance of Ward two, Liberal-Conservatives was held in the association rooms Campbell Building, last Thursday night. Thirty-one tables were played. The players were as follows: First table, Mrs. Randal; Mrs. O'Connor; Mr. V. J. Dunn and Mr. A. Spivak; second table, Mrs. Harrison, Mr. W. J. Hambley, Mrs. Peters and Mr. J. Cole; third table, Mr. R. Holt; Mr. E. Murphy; Mrs. Peden and Mr. R. Ridder; ten bid Mrs. F. Fullam and Mr. Billie; eleven tombola, Mrs. Tytler; second tombola, Mr. R. H. Huddleston; third tombola, Mrs. O'Connor. Major Gus Lyons, president of the central association, drew the tombola tickets, after which the floor was cleared for dancing to the strains of Mrs. Gleason's orchestra.

The Wounded and Maimed

"...we do forget that long list of wounded, maimed and nerve-racked men who were spared to return to their homes. We thank God for all these men and women.

"The all-important thing is to see that we perpetuate the spirit of the men who died—for surely we fought for many noble ideals—and all the sacrifices that were made over them were made in vain—and all the widowed mothers and orphan children and all the maimed warriors and blinded heroes who are walking the streets of our towns and cities and suffering in vain unless we catch the spirit of the men who died. I like these words of Col. John McCrae: 'We shall not sleep if ye break faith with us who die.' And to whom does he represent the dead?—for surely we fight to you and me! To you fathers and mothers, to your sons and daughters and maidens, upon whose shoulders rests the responsibility for maintaining the honor and the good name of this great land?

"And we are keeping faith with the men who died! Are we shaming a nation from to all the disintegrating forces of evil; to all the savors of moral compromise—to all that would seek to undermine constitutional authority? These are the all-important things for us to attend to now—if we would build up our country again and keep faith with those who died."

Major White referred to the great necessity of showing all kindness and consideration to returned men. He spoke as one who knew something of the discomforts, dangers and tragedy of modern warfare, having served for nearly eighteen months in the field force. Many who were earning large salaries before the war are peddling wares from house to house to earn a living for themselves and their children. They are reduced to their mode of earning a living, and their wives and children are left to care for them. These men are no longer able to stand the strain that their previous callings involved. They ask neither pity nor sympathy, but a fair consideration of the difficulties of their position.

General L. R. Sherwood, the last living Union general, is to appear in the films.

Magnesia Best for Your Indigestion

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discovered that the best way to get rid of these symptoms is to take a teaspoonful or two of Bittered Magnesia in a little water after meals. This will neutralize the stomach acids and stop the griping. If the griping continues, however, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. This is the best way to get rid of the griping. The approach of meal time because they know the wonderful antacid and bowel corrective, which neutralizes the stomach acids and stops the griping, prevents food from being digested too quickly and causing discomfort. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get pure Bittered Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

General L. R. Sherwood, the last living Union general, is to appear in the films.

Poppy Ball Meets with Great Success

Continued from Page 1

Brigade and High School Cadets, all of whom lent color and interest to the occasion. The band of the Salvation Army led the column of veterans; and the veterans expressed their thanks for many evidences of kindness on the part of the "Army," which went back to the war itself, by marching back to the city with the band after the memorial service, and by giving three cheers outside the Salvation Army headquarters on Broad Street, where the parade was dismissed.

Great Throng of People

Another noteworthy feature of the parade was the presence of disabled veterans from the local hospitals. These were taken along the route of the march in wheelchairs, and the rear of the column of veterans, in sightseeing cars and private motors.

The parade was drawn up for the memorial service along the driveway at the foot of the main steps of the Parliament Buildings. This arrangement was contrary to that made by the "Armistice" period committee, which had intended the services to be on Parliament Square, where the units were to be gathered in the rear of the steps.

The third annual poppy ball, held last evening at the Empress Hotel by the members and officers of the Great War Veterans' Association, was crowned with outstanding success. The two former events have been well patronized by the public, but last night's function surpassed the highest expectations of the committee in charge.

Fidler's orchestra supplied a capital programme of dance music, and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the

CITY PAYS HONOR TO DEAD OF WAR

Continued from Page 1

Brigade and High School Cadets, all of whom lent color and interest to the occasion. The band of the Salvation Army led the column of veterans; and the veterans expressed their thanks for many evidences of kindness on the part of the "Army," which went back to the war itself, by marching back to the city with the band after the memorial service, and by giving three cheers outside the Salvation Army headquarters on Broad Street, where the parade was dismissed.

Great Throng of People

Another noteworthy feature of the parade was the presence of disabled veterans from the local hospitals. These were taken along the route of the march in wheelchairs, and the rear of the column of veterans, in sightseeing cars and private motors.

The parade was drawn up for the memorial service along the driveway at the foot of the main steps of the Parliament Buildings. This arrangement was contrary to that made by the "Armistice" period committee, which had intended the services to be on Parliament Square, where the units were to be gathered in the rear of the steps.

The third annual poppy ball, held last evening at the Empress Hotel by the members and officers of the Great War Veterans' Association, was crowned with outstanding success. The two former events have been well patronized by the public, but last night's function surpassed the highest expectations of the committee in charge.

Fidler's orchestra supplied a capital programme of dance music, and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which was lovely with its wealth of magnificent chrysanthemums, and was used as a rendezvous for the committee in charge of the

and the many encores were generously rendered. The hall leading to the private writing-rooms was thrown into use, and hundreds of guests were present. The refreshments supplied were excellent and soft drinks were obtainable in the palmroom, which

Vancouver Island

Island Pays Homage To Memory of Fallen

Armistice Day Observed With Impressive Ceremonies in Cities, Towns and Villages—Reverence and Honor Manifested for the Great War's Dead and Living

ARMISTICE ceremonies were held in all Vancouver Island centres on Sunday. In all the communities special church services took place and parades and similar demonstrations were carried out in several up-island cities. The following special dispatches to The Colonist describe how Armistice Day was spent in several of these places:

DUNCAN, Nov. 12.—The fifth anniversary of Armistice Day was observed yesterday, with hundreds of citizens of Duncan and surrounding districts assembled at the War Memorial Cross to attend the joint service arranged by the Protestant ministers.

Train Hails

As the town clock announced the hour, the northbound passenger train sounded its whistle, after which perfect silence reigned for a space of two minutes.

A guard of honour of returned men in charge of Capt. J. Douglas-Groves, president of the local G.W.V.A., was drawn up in front of the memorial cross. Boys Scouts, Girl Guides and Brownies made up the other three sides of the square surrounding the cross. The Mayor and aldermen of the city attended in a body, and Reeve Evans represented the North Cowichan council. Standard bearers of the Daughters of the Empire were present with their standards.

A great profusion of flowers and laurel wreaths were laid at the base of the monument by individuals and various public organizations. Beautiful wreaths were laid on the memorial by the City of Duncan, Cowichan G.W.V.A., the Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A., the Red Cross Society, the I.O.D.E., the King's Daughters and various units of Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, etc.

The following programme was carried out: Hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past"; sentences, Rev. W. F. Gibson; Scripture reading, Rev. John H. Hart; sermon, Rev. Arthur Bliehauer, hymn, "The Supreme Sacrifice"; the Lord's Prayer, led by the Ven. Archdeacon Collison; benediction, Rev. F. Granville-Christians; National Anthem; the singing of the chorus of "We Serve an Offerer" was taken in aid of the Cowichan Returned Soldiers' relief fund and incidental expenses. The collection totalled $171.25.

Courtenay

COURTENAY, Nov. 12.—Yesterday afternoon several hundred people gathered at the Memorial Hall to take part in a memorial service in honor of the fallen heroes in the great war who went from the Comox Valley and rendered the supreme sacrifice for their country. A sixteen-band under the leadership of Mr. Henry Murdoch, of Cumberland, provided the music for the hymns sung. The Rev. Father Heaton delivered an exceptionally impressive address in which he paid a glowing tribute to the men who fought for the safety of the world, especially mentioning those who had laid down their lives that might prevail. Other ministers who took part in the service were the Rev. J. W. Filton and the Rev. Mr. Leveridge, of the Anglican Church, and the Rev. J. W. Beattie, of the Presbyterian Church. After the service in the hall, a parade was formed and the gathering led by the members of the Royal Canadian Legion, wended its way to the Memorial Cairn at Sandwick, where Mrs. Alexander Heaton, mother of two of the heroes whose names appear on the Cairn placed a wreath of poppies. Master Jack McPhee, on behalf of the children of the Courtenay public schools, performed a similar duty, after which the National Anthem was sung and Last Post sounded by Mr. Henry Murdoch.

Cumberland Delighted by Annual Coal Dance

CUMBERLAND, Nov. 12.—The annual dance of the office staff of the Canadian Colliers, held on Friday, was a magnificent success, over three hundred invited guests being present. Novelty. Five orchestra of Nonnissim's band engaged for the occasion, and the famous American band was never heard to better advantage. Dancing was continued until 3 a.m., terminating one of the best entertainments ever held in the district.

Forty-Two Candidates Get First Aid Papers

CUMBERLAND, Nov. 12.—A very impressive memorial service was held Sunday. The veterans and the Boy Scouts met at the G. W. V. A. Hall at 10:30 a.m. and paraded to the Anglican Church to attend service at 10:45. Wreaths were carried, and after the service the Rev. J. W. Filton and the Rev. Mr. Leveridge, of the Anglican Church, and the Rev. J. W. Beattie, of the Presbyterian Church. After the service in the hall, a parade was formed and the gathering led by the members of the Royal Canadian Legion, wended its way to the Memorial Cairn at Sandwick, where Mrs. Alexander Heaton, mother of two of the heroes whose names appear on the Cairn placed a wreath of poppies. Master Jack McPhee, on behalf of the children of the Courtenay public schools, performed a similar duty, after which the National Anthem was sung and Last Post sounded by Mr. Henry Murdoch.

Camberton

CAMBERTON, Nov. 12.—A very impressive memorial service was held Sunday. The veterans and the Boy Scouts met at the G. W. V. A. Hall at 10:30 a.m. and paraded to the Anglican Church to attend service at 10:45. Wreaths were carried, and after the service the Rev. J. W. Filton and the Rev. Mr. Leveridge, of the Anglican Church, and the Rev. J. W. Beattie, of the Presbyterian Church. After the service in the hall, a parade was formed and the gathering led by the members of the Royal Canadian Legion, wended its way to the Memorial Cairn at Sandwick, where Mrs. Alexander Heaton, mother of two of the heroes whose names appear on the Cairn placed a wreath of poppies. Master Jack McPhee, on behalf of the children of the Courtenay public schools, performed a similar duty, after which the National Anthem was sung and Last Post sounded by Mr. Henry Murdoch.

Holiday Head

ALBERT HEAD, Nov. 12.—Armistice Day was celebrated at the school yesterday, when morning service was held in the school being crowded with relatives. The vicar, Rev. F. Conley, opened the service with the two minutes' silence, following which the soldiers' hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee" was impressively sung. A stirring sermon by the vicar brought the service to an end. Poppy Day Successful

DUNCAN, Nov. 12.—Poppy Day was Poppy Day in Duncan, and over one thousand red Flanders poppies were disposed of by the ladies of the G. W. C. A. Women's Auxiliary, who had charge of the sale. The public was in a sympathetic mood, and by early hour practically every ou-

REPORT SAYS ROAD TO BE BUILT SOON

Advises Declares That Government Will Also Construct Railway to Port Renfrew

PORT RENFREW, Nov. 12.—The West Coast wagon road and a railroad to Port Renfrew are going to be built shortly, according to advice that have reached here.

Moors, Daniels & Sorenson have constructed a wagon road over the north fork of San Juan River and over the Stoney Creek, and are now building the bridge over Granite Creek. They have about six or seven miles of railroad built and steel laid and in daily use for their engines and cars. They will doubtless reach the big and valuable timber limits shortly and be ready for logging early next year.

There has been considerable agitation and petitions have been presented to the Government praying for a wharf at about five years, showing the great hardships and danger, more especially since the steamer stopped coming to the old and dangerous port nearly two years ago.

Indicates in Future

On Saturday, Nov. 4, at 4 a.m. in a rough sea the SS. Princess Maquinna came in, bringing freight mail and passengers. One of the residents fell between the steamer's side and a gas boat with a load of freight in his arms, but was pulled out without serious results.

Mr. Barker's salmon boat was sunk with several tons of freight on it and two gas engines and stove, resulting in a loss of hundreds of dollars which the settlers can ill-afford to lose. All this trouble was caused by lack of a wharf where the salmon could discharge the local freight mail and passengers and as there was approximately ten tons of freight and an average number of 25 passengers to take off by small boats and gas boats, it is a great mercy no one was drowned. As a rule the rougher the weather the further out from shore does the Maquinna drift, thus risking the small boats go out to her.

"The Dominion Government has voted the money several years in succession to rebuild the wharf but owing to the Provincial Government refusing the foreshore rights, nothing has been done beyond preparing plans," states Mr. George Parkinson. Chairman of the Moors, Daniels & Sorenson.

"Here is another striking example of the business inability of our Government, it having wasted about $40,000 of the taxpayers' money on the useless box factory at the said wharf, besides guaranteeing the wages to workmen, which it afterwards refused to pay. This is the result of the building," Mr. Parkinson continues, "are in a very dangerous condition and liable to be washed out by the sea before next summer, as the piles are going out from under the buildings."

Mr. Parkinson says that the returned soldiers, for whom he alleged benefit the Government advanced the large sum, are scattered and gone, leaving another white elephant on the Government's hands, never to be regaled. The chief advocate of the scheme has gone to California, where so many are going from Victoria on account of the employment opportunities.

"It would be somewhat difficult to know wherein Port Renfrew has so grievously sinned to deserve such bad treatment. Is it because our local member is an honest man and dares to oppose the Government in such reckless waste and bad administration of the people's business?" concludes Mr. Parkinson.

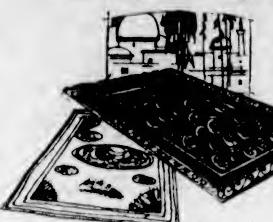

Ivory Bedroom Furniture Attractively Low in Price

Phone 1670—Private Exchange Connecting All Departments

Special Value Offerings Today in Oriental Rugs, Drapery Fabrics and Upholstered Furniture

A NICE ORIENTAL RUG

Will Make a Most Acceptable Christmas Gift for the Home

3 Only, Ghordies Rugs

Very Heavy Pile Rugs for library or den, rose and grey grounds with medallion designs; approximate size 10 ft by 7 ft. Special Price $83.75

1 Only, Pergam Rug

A close, soft pile Turkish Rug, in Oriental designs and colorings of rose, fawn and blue; size 9 by 5 ft. Special Price $83.75

2 Only, Chinese Rugs

2 Only, of these beautiful rugs with slight imperfections; genuine hand-made rugs in blue ground with various colorings. 1 Only, size 8 by 10. Value $150.00 Special Price $125.00 1 Only, size 9 by 12. Value $225.00 Special Price $159.00

5 Only, Kazak Rugs

5 Only, Finest Quality Persian Kazak Rugs, in exquisite colorings and designs; suitable for hall, den or living-room; approximate size 6 ft by 12 ft. Values to $250.00 Special Price, each $149.50

1 Only, Pergam Rug

An exceptionally fine rug in rich colorings of red and fawn, with Oriental design; size 8 ft by 6 ft. Special Price $83.75

4 Only, Kazac and Pergam Rugs

An excellent opportunity to purchase a hall or hearth rug at a big saving. These are genuine Turkish rugs of excellent quality; approximate size 3 by 5 ft. Values to $65.00. Special Price $58.75

5 Only, Kazak Rugs

5 Only, Finest Quality Persian Kazak Rugs, in exquisite colorings and designs; suitable for hall, den or living-room; approximate size 6 ft by 12 ft. Values to $250.00 Special Price, each $149.50

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of large settee, two chairs, Chesterfield table and pedestal stool. Walnut finished frames upholstered in richly figured tapestry. Complete for $225.00

Royal" Easy Chairs

Solid oak frames, beautifully upholstered in high grade tapestry. Has patent push button controlling adjustable back. Special Price, each $37.50

A Royal" Easy Chair

Solid oak frames, beautifully upholstered in high grade tapestry. Has patent push button controlling adjustable back. Special Price, each $37.50

Three-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of large settee, two chairs, Chesterfield table and pedestal stool. Walnut finished frames upholstered in richly figured tapestry. Complete for $225.00

Three-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of large settee, two chairs, Chesterfield table and pedestal stool. Walnut finished frames upholstered in richly figured tapestry. Complete for $225.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in fine quality tapestry, full Marquise spring cushions. Complete set $175.00

Five-Piece Living-Room Suite

Consisting of long settee, two chairs to match; walnut finished wood frame upholstered in

Social Events

Metchosin Tennis Club

A most enjoyable evening was spent on Friday at the residence of Dr. C. P. Brown, William Head, the occasion being a social gathering of the Metchosin Tennis Club members. The hostesses were Mrs. C. P. Brown and Mrs. Bradford, who very charmingly entertained the visitors. Dr. Brown exhibited some really interesting photos on a screen, being assisted by the Rev. F. Conley, who skillfully manipulated the lantern. All the pictures shown were the work of the popular doctor, taken by him during his travels abroad, and were explained in a delightful, lucid, and informative lecture. Cards and games were indulged in, after which dainty refreshments were served. A slight shower, amounting to seventeen dollars, was realized for the Tennis Club funds.

Wedding Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hamilton announce the marriage of their daughter, Eva Margaret, to Mr. Geoffrey W. Morkill, the ceremony to take place on Saturday, November 24, at St. John's Anglican Church, Victoria, Montreal. Mr. Morkill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morkill, lumberman, and his parents have left for the East to attend the marriage. Mr. Morkill, who has a wide circle of friends in this city where, prior to the war, he resided for several years, is a graduate of the University of Peru, where he is interested in railway engineering. Mr. Morkill will probably pass through Victoria during January, en route to Peru.

Hostess at Shower

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. C. H. Pendray entertained at a shower in honor of Miss Gladys Ridout, whose marriage will take place shortly. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, the color scheme being carried out in green and white. Durian, orange juice, lime juice and iced tea were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dawkins, Mrs. E. A. Ridout and Miss Margaret Turner. Among those present were the Misses Gladys, Mrs. F. Turner, Mrs. F. Friend, Mrs. Woodley, Mrs. R. Parker, Mrs. G. Fraser, Mrs. G. Halkeit, Mrs. E. Mathews, Mrs. V. Dawkins, Mrs. E. A. Ridout, Mrs. J. Pendray, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. J. E. Fuller and Mrs. A. C. Ridout.

Enjoyable Dance

Last Friday evening a very enjoyable dance in the form of a surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson, in honor of their daughter, Elsie. Among the unexpected guests present were the Misses Catherine McDonald, Dorothy Shepherd, Freda and Jessie Widdowson, Eleanor Gropp, Marie Danes, Helen Danes, Marion Johnson, Helen Loskin, Irene Smith, Audra Jones, Flora Hill, Misses Clifford Hilton, Charlie Swanell, Jimmy McConnell, Harry Caushy, Stafford Meldrum, Tom Davis, Fred Peele, Willie Gropp, Hugh McRae, Frank Gilbert, Wesley Bremner, George Turner and Steve Russell.

At Rugby Game

Among those noticed at the international rugby game at Oak Bay were Col. and Mrs. Winsby, Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert Hoins, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Mr. McLaurin, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis, Miss Marjorie Oates, Miss Barton, Miss Anna McBride, Miss Louise Campbell, Miss Patsey Hemming, Miss Frances Bennett, Miss Jean Harvey, Miss Payne, Misses Colipman, Miss M. McKenna, Miss Jean Dick, Mr. Jack Kay, Mr. Jack Holt, Helen Ferguson, Miss P. Beck and others.

Beroukhoff Party

Mr. Peter Beroukhoff, the Greek merchant in Vancouver, and Mrs. Beroukhoff were entertained at a jolly party to about seventy guests, the occasion being the betrothal announcement of their daughter, Ethel, to Mr. Gordon M. Grant, a barrister in Vancouver, and formerly of this city. During the evening orchestral music was furnished by Mr. Cross and Mr. Hunter. The wedding of this

Return from Hospital

Mrs. Charles C. Cooper, of Monte- ray Avenue, has returned to her home from the Royal Jubilee Hospital, after a serious but successful operation.

Visits Victoria

Mr. Adrian Fletcher, of Vancouver, is spending a few days in Victoria as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fletcher, Carberry Gardens.

Return to Shawigan

After spending a few days in Victoria, Commander and Mrs. Kingscote have returned to their home at Shawigan Lake.

PORT ALBERNI

At Somass Hotel
The following guests are registered at the Somass Hotel: Mr. M. Gosse, Mr. MacLean; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Murphy, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Lowe, Jr. Ladysmith; Mr. A. Vaughan, Mr. W. J. McNeil, Vancouver; Mr. M. G. Kilkhamer, Ladner; Mr. B. Taui, Green Cove; Mr. J. Troise, Mr. J. McGregor and Mr. B. P. Schenck, Victoria; Mr. J. McAllister, Mr. A. L. Currie, Mr. J. W. Watson, Mr. W. C. McAllister, Mr. M. C. A. Vaughan, Mr. John M. Thomas, Mr. E. S. Vanderwart, Vancouver; Miss Lena McGovern, Sechelt; His Honor Judge Barker, Nanaimo; Charles Crawford, S. Crozier, W. H. Whiting, Nanaimo; A. Constantine, Duncan; K. Matsui, Sechart; Theo. Hudson, Union Bay; W. Brooks, R. Brisco, Victoria; Mr. E. Marshall, Vancouver; D. E. Snell, Vancouver; H. Warren, Victoria; R. C. Dagg and J. T. Dudley, Nanaimo.

Wedded 25 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert S. Morris will hold a reception on Thursday at their residence to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their marriage, and have issued invitations to a number of their friends.

Holeproof Hosiery

Both men and women favor Holeproof silk-and-wool for winter wear. So stylish and so comfortable.

MADE IN CANADA

ccccccccccccc

The Upholstery Shop

Next Saturday, 118 View St.
For CHAIRS, SOFA'S,
FURNITURE REPAIRS
J. J. HARSTE
W.M. F. ORME

"More Heat Per Dollar"

COAL

Ordinary coal means ordinary coal, but our Wellington Coal means more heat.

Richard Hall & Sons

Established 1882
1232 Government Street,
Phone 83

Special Sale of 'Mums BROWN'S'

Victoria Nurseries, Ltd.
Phones 219 and 1269-618 View St.

RUGS
RUGS
Oriental Rugs

All sizes, all prices to suit all tastes. How would this do?
5 x 9 Mysapore; Hand-Made, Wool Rug $45.00
9 x 12 Indo-Persian Kerman-sha design $225.00
Large stock to choose from.

Carter's Rug Shop

705 FORT STREET
The Old Reliable, Here Since 1895

PHONE 2302

Pantodium DYE WORKS

MAIN OFFICE & WORKS
350 COOK ST.
VICTORIA, B.C.

We serve you. A phone call will bring us to your door.

After All

The most convincing and unanswerable argument as to the superiority of "Ye Olde Firm."

Heintzman & Co.
PIANO

is its tone. Those who have heard the Heintzman & Co. Piano understand why it is the choice of

The World's Greatest Artists

It does not cost much more to own a genuine Heintzman, and you have the satisfaction of knowing that you have the best.

We sell them on very reasonable terms.

Let us mail you a catalogue.

Heintzman & Co., Ltd.
1113 GOVERNMENT ST.

Phone Your Grocery Orders to COPAS & SON

Read Prices Below—BEST VALUE in the City.

Northern Spy Apples.	$1.85	Fine Red Table Apples.	$1.35
Per Box		Per box
Arizona Grapefruit	25c	Quaker Pure Raspberry	75c
3 lbs		Jam, 4 lb. tin	25c
Good Potatoes,	$1.60	Palmolive Soap, 3 cakes	25c
100-lb sack		for Fresh Roasted Coffee.	$1.00
Fresh-Made Creamery Butter (Lawndale Brand).	43c	Paste, Much like Cream of Wheat, 1 lb. size	33c
Per lb.		Maple Leaf Bread Flour	$1.85
Independent Creamery Butter (nothing nicer).	47c	49-lb. sack
Per lb.		Peters' Home-Made Marmalade, Per tin	65c
Nice Meaty Prime Ham.	19c	Wethers' Home-Made Mincemeat, Per lb.	25c
Per lb.		Crystallized Ginger, Etc., Etc.
Oranges, Raisins, Mixed Nuts, Let Us Have Your Orders.

COPAS & SON Anti-Combine Grocers
Corner Fort and Broad Sts.
Phones 94 and 95

Standing for Butternut Bread

Fine grained, temptingly crisp brown crust, and always uniformly good. To be had at your grocer's, or phone Rennie & Taylor—764.

IT PAYS
to light up your STORE

Outside and In

Bright Show Windows Outside Make Business Brisk Within

The surest way to bring people into your store, Mr. Merchant, is to light your show windows so attractively that shoppers will want to see more of your store and merchandise.

Now, particularly, with the Christmas shopping season measurably near, is the time to dress up your windows with attention-compelling electric lights.

We'll gladly advise you on your lighting requirements.

B.C. Electric

Light and Power Department.

Phone 123.

Particular People

choose

"SALADA"

TEA

EDIBLES

The most delicious blend procurable.

Duncan Makes Plans For New Dance Hall

DUNCAN, Nov. 12.—If present plans are carried out, Duncan is shortly to have a new thoroughly up-to-date dance hall. The site has not yet been determined upon.

Mrs. W. D'Orme, of Somesons, has purchased the Presbyterian manse on Ypres Street. A new manse will shortly be erected on two lots recently donated by Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford, on Buena Vista Heights.

Extensive improvements to the interior of the old Opera House are to be undertaken at once. An inclined floor is to be laid and alterations made which will convert the building into a first class moving picture house. The lessee, Mr. Waddell, has just secured an extension of his lease for another three years.

When you eat Bran for constipation be certain that it is ALL BRAN!

There is no time to faze away trying to find out just what some mixed-up cereal with a small bran content can do to ward off the grave illness that constantly hovers over constipation sufferers. What your system demands is ALL BRAN! You must have ALL BRAN to give permanent relief! Anything less is ALL BRAN! It's not true that ALL BRAN gives results! Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Kellogg's will do the work; it will give you permanent relief; it will remake your health if you will eat it regularly—because it is ALL BRAN! Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled, is wonderful for health. It sweeps, cleans and purifies, ridding the system of the dangerous toxic poisons. Yet it is simply a nature-food—nature's own remedy for constipation; nature's way of keeping every body-organ tuned true.

Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly to give permanent relief; naturally—at least two tablespoonsfuls daily; for chronic cases, with every meal. It is beneficial as a preventive. Its nut-like flavor is delicious. You will like it sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal, or eat it as a cereal. Kellogg's Bran makes delightful muffins, raisin bread, pancakes, etc. It adds a fine flavor to soups and gravies. Have the whole family eat Kellogg's Bran, and see the health of every member improve.

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

The Girl in the Corner Apartment

By MAY CHRISTIE
Author of "One Glorious Year," "The Disturbing Kiss," Etc.

THE CHARACTERS

Cynthia Brent, country girl, living in a New York apartment she has inherited from an old lady she once befriended.

Ruby Allison, her gay and frivolous friend.

Alec Kerr, Ruby's fiancé.

Quentin Gray, an artist friend of Ruby.

Miss Ellen, who keeps house for Cynthia.

Murray Stewart, for whom Cynthia is working as a stenographer.

Mrs. Wakeland, friend and rich client of Stewart, who takes a fancy to Cynthia.

Violet Jerrard, friend of Murray's.

LXXVI.—Ruby is Determined

"I F you're tired, a cup of tea will do you good. I thought we might stop off up here and have some. Listen—you can hear the band that's playing there."

Sure enough, strains of a waltz came drifting on the warm, sleepy air.

"After tea, we can leave the crowds, and find some charming backwaters," he suggested, he suggested, he suggested.

"Oh, I'm not so sure I'm keen on that," said Ruby hesitatingly. "I rather like to watch the mob. Don't you?"

"Not when I've me, to whom I'm dying to make love," came back the dauntless friend.

She flushed a little, but did not reply. She was half afraid of Quentin Gray—at least, she had been, till this afternoon—but now a sense of her own power had come to her. She felt that the situation was more or less in her own strong hands.

He was a philanderer, of course! And yet . . .

She knew that she was looking very handsome and attractive. Why shouldn't she play her cards well, and win the man of her choice, as lots other girls not half so fascinating, and without any gift of beauty, ever did? Her eyes had adored him, and so had lots of the boys out home, bled their dull, suburban hearts! Then why not Quentin Gray?

"I'll fascinate him as sure as my name is Ruby Allison," decided the girl. "Today, one way or another, the die will be cast."

"What a lovely hotel!" exclaimed Ruby, as they stopped for tea.

The clatter of tea-cups and a hum of talk, and the spilling of cups, and laughter of the waiter, mingled with the music of the band.

Crowds of pretty women and their satellites were teaing at this famous place.

Inexpensive, but worth while," commented Quentin, as—seated at a little table for two—he attacked egg sandwiches with relish. "Such happy times as I've had on the Sound!"

and his face assumed the silly grin that even the greatest males will take when they mind reports complacently to past "conquests."

"And you're going to have those happy times again today, I hope," cut in his companion briskly. (No use to let him dwell on past "affairs of course.)

"Of course, dear." He shot a quick glance at her, then added:

"There's not a woman here can touch you for style and good looks!" She bridled. (This was more like it.)

After tea, they started forth again.

"I'd like to point one of these for you, dear," he remarked, as they passed the open windows of a houseboat, through which they could perceive a merry little meal for two in progress.

"You'd spoil me, eh?" Ruby brought her most hypocritical smile into heavy action.

"Of course, I would."

Hope was rising high within her, but was dashed a trifle when suddenly her companion said:

"Where's Cynthia Brent, this week-end?"

"She's gone to Chicago with that snobbish cat, Mrs. Wakeland," rapped out Ruby.

Quentin raised his brows.

"Mrs. Wakeland is Cynthia's a friend of hers, is she?"

The girl nodded, rather grumpily.

"She's turning the kid's head, too. Taking her to balls, and heaven alone knows where!"

"Do you know the Wakeland woman? And, if so, don't you agree with me that she's an utter snob?"

He nodded non-committally, and changed the subject.

TOMORROW—An Announcement

SACRED RECITAL AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Mr. Victor Edmunds, Tenor, and Mr. G. Jennings Burnett, Organist to Appear This Evening

Mr. Victor Edmunds, tenor and Mr. G. Jennings Burnett, organist, are to give the following programme at their annual solo and organ recital at St. John's Church this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. Introduction and Adagio (Sonata in A minor, Borowski); air, "How Many Hired Servants"; air, "I Will Arise" ("Prodigal Son," Sullivan); organ, "Legende" (Dvorak); air, "The Sorrows of Death" (Lobkowitz); organ, "Liebestraum" (Schubert); organ, "Cyrne" (Saint-Saens); recit, "And God Created Man"; air, "In Native Worth" ("Creation," Haydn); organ, "Scherzo" (Hoffmann); recit, "O Loss of Sight"; air, "Torelli" ("Samson," Handel); organ, Pauline Hall (D. G. J. Burnett); (played at funeral service by Clarence Eddy); air, "I Hear the Voice of Jesus Say" (Rathburn); organ, "Angels" ("Scenes Pitter-queens," Massenet); air, "Thanks-giving" (Cowan).

SCHOOL CONCERT AT MARGARET JENKINS

Parent-Teachers' Association is Presenting Varied Programme November 15

At the Margaret Jenkins School a concert is to be held on Thursday, November 15, at 8:30, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association. The programme is in a varied one, and offers some excellent talent. The following are taking part:

Selections on Long Distance Radio. .... Installed by Minty & White.

Tenor Solo ..... T. Kelway.

Solo ..... Mrs. McCallum.

Comedy Sketch ..... Mr. Drysdale.

Harmony Selection ..... K. Lovell.

Violin Solo ..... Mr. Jack Trace.

(Pupil of Pauline Hall (Drury Price).)

Contralto Solo ..... Miss Gladys Thorpe.

Banjo Solo ..... Mr. L. Conyers.

Comic Song ..... Mr. Javan.

Tenor Solo ..... E. Impett.

..... Mr. T. Scott.

"God Save the King."

Consumption of pork in the United States greatly increased during 1922.

Best Fir

Millwood

Phone 7247

PHONE 766

LADIES PAINTING
NOW FOR XMAS

They are painting china for gifts, or hand-painted china makes such acceptable presents. Big variety of cups and saucers, plates, bonbons, sugars and creams, spoon trays, celery trays, mustard, marmalades, tarts, etc. R. A. Brown & Co., Douglas and Johnson.

Newest Footwear for Day or Evening Wear

Your inspection is cordially invited.

MUTRIE & SON

1306 Douglas St.

Phone 6612

And Every Boy May be Aladdin

It looks like an ordinary room—but enter it reverently.

This is the home of heroes, the scene of battles, and the castle of high romance.

Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer live here; the Knights of the Round Table; the Pirates of Treasure Island, and the brave gentlemen of Ivanhoe.

They will be part of your boy's life forever, if only you are wise. Whatever else your best room may have, put books and an Edison MAZDA lamp at the head of each bed.

For a lamp is a magic thing. By its light every lad may be Aladdin. He opens his book, touches the lamp, and the genii appear.

Go to the Edison Mazda Lamp Agent in your neighborhood. He knows just which lamps will give the best lighting effect with every fixture in your home—and at the lowest cost.

"Made in Canada"

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

Edison Lamp Works of Canadian General Electric Co. Limited

LOCAL DEALER

E. P. SAUNDERS

277 Superior Street

All Phone Orders Delivered

Phone 7247

LOCAL DEALER

GRANT ELECTRIC CO.

1319 Broad Street

Phone 6612

Opposite New Bank of Nova Scotia

THESE LAMPS ARE DISTRIBUTED BY

HAWKINS & HAYWARD

Electrical Quality and Service Stores

1607 Douglas St., Opposite City Hall, Phone 643 1103 Douglas St., Near Cor. Fort St., Phone 2627

Gordon Syroka
LIMITED

Store Opens at 9 A.M. and Closes at 6 P.M.

Closing Out This Business Everything Must Go!

Today We Enter Into the Second Week of the Great Closing-Out Sale

Are You Taking Advantage of the Wonderful Offerings?

That the Victoria public has entire confidence in this sale has been very ably demonstrated this past week.

Thousands have attended and thousands will attend because they know this is A GENUINE CLOSING-OUT SALE, and just as we have stated, EVERYTHING MUST GO!

We appeal with an entirely new list of exceptional bargains for today. It is to your advantage to buy here—and now.

Dresses! Dresses! Dresses!

For Every Occasion and at Closing-Out Prices

Canton Crepe Dresses, in navy, black, brown, grey and sand, in the most dainty and becoming styles, all from our regular stock. Originally $27.50. Closing-Out Price, $19.50.

Original price, $29.50. Closing-Out Price, $19.50.

Original price, $39.50. Closing-Out Price, $22.50.

Original price, $39.50. Closing-Out Price, $22.50.

Satin Dresses, in black and navy, suitable for afternoon and street wear. Originally $35.00. Closing-Out Price, $29.50.

Original price, $49.50. Closing-Out Price, $39.50.

Original price, $55.00. Closing-Out Price, $39.50.

Original price, $59.50. Closing-Out Price, $39.50.

Original price, $27.50. Closing-Out Price, $19.50.

Original price, $75.00. Closing-Out Price, $59.50.

Wool Tricotine Dresses, in navy, brown and black; coat styles and latest trimming effects. Originally $23.75. Closing-Out Price, $19.50.

Sweaters for Golf, Skating or Just for Everyday Wear All to Be Cleared

Unusual Reductions

Slip-on and Cardigan Sweaters in an excellent range of becoming Winter colors. Originally $8.50. Closing-Out Price, $5.95.

Cardigan, Tuxedo and Slip-on Sweaters, in a good range of colors and sizes. Originally $9.50. Closing-Out Price, $6.95.

Everything Must Go

Other Cardigan, Tuxedo and Slip-on Sweaters. Originally $12.75. Closing-Out Price, $8.95.

GOOD YEAR TRUCK TIRES

Goodyear means Good Wear

Weiler Auto Supply House

Douglas Street at Broughton (Weiler Building)
Telephones: Office, 659; Battery, 659; Night, 62

GOODYEAR TRUCK TIRE SERVICE STATION

FIDELIS GIRLS SHOW OLD FORM

WIN OPENING GAME IN SUNDAY SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Defeat St. Andrews' 17 to 5—St. John's Team is Successful Against Congregational Basketball

The senior girls' basketball match played Saturday night at the Trades Hall gymnasium resulted, as was expected, in a win for the Fidelis team, last year's champions, by 17 to 5 for St. Andrews.

The Fidelis girls showed up very well in all departments of the game. Hilda Best, at centre, being a valuable acquisition to the team this season. Isobel Crawford is as deadly a shot as she was last season, scoring eleven points for the winners. Iris Fletcher and Marjorie Breckenridge played very well on the defense. The Fidelis five will be hard to beat on their showing in the opening game.

Playing with several new players, St. Andrews' girls held the Fidelis down to a small score in the first period, the total being 6-1 at half-time.

Dorothy Melville and Helen Cruckshanks were the stars at guard.

The new players, Helen Robertson, Mary Hamilton and Helen Cruckshanks, show promise of speed as the season progresses, all showing up well in the first start in a senior league game.

Washington scored two goals in the second period.

Beth Campbell made her first appearance in a Fidelis uniform, and worked well with the other players.

T. de Macedo refereed. The teams and scores:

	Fidelis
Ruth Campbell	2
Hilda Best	1
Isobel Crawford	11
Iris Philbrook	0
Marjorie Breckenridge	0
St. Andrews'	17
Isla Worthington	5
Helen Robertson	0
Helen Boyce	0
Helen Cruckshanks	0
Dorothy Melville	0
Mary Hamilton	0

Adanacs, 23; Centennials, 14.
"Tibby" Russell and his Adanacs whirwinds were too strong for Bill.

DYSPEPSIA WAS SO BAD Could Hardly Eat Anything

Mrs. C. Stone, Nanticoke, Ont., writes: "Some time ago I had a very serious attack of dyspepsia, and was also troubled with gas on my stomach. I could hardly eat anything, and very often had pains after meals. I had used different medicines, but they didn't seem to do me any good. At last I happened to run on the track of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using it for a short time I felt a lot better. I continued its use until I was completely relieved, and now I am ready to recommend it to anyone troubled as I was."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Advt.)

London News and Gossip

By Elizabeth Montizambert

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The wives of the visiting premiers and members of the delegations to the Imperial Conference were profiting by their stay in London to do a little quiet sightseeing. Lady Gouin told me that she had spent a delightful hour in Hertford House enjoying the wonderful French pictures in the Wallace collection, and in the museums, theatres and other places of interest reported an influx of visitors who seem to revive the stories of the season. Mr. Mackenzie King's popularity is steadily growing over here. He is not only admired for his eloquence and political acumen, but I have heard many complimentary remarks about his humour and the playful way in which he performs his social duties. What the Maharajah of Alwar said the other night at Lancaster House about human things having their value as well as political things has been very well instanced by the favorable impression created by the Canadian Prime Minister after discharging his political duties, and when he might have been pardoned for seeking a little leisure, found time to call on all the people who have been prominently connected with Canadian affairs. Another trait much appreciated over here is Mr. King's habit of replying at once to invitations by personal note.

The Royal Marriage
English people are frankly amused, and not a little disgusted, at the preposterous ceremony which has been brought in some of the less reputable, but, unluckily, widely circulated American papers with regard to the marriage of Lady Louise Mountbatten and the Crown Prince of Sweden. A great deal of interest is being taken over here in this Royal wedding, and the bride and bridegroom have many sincere friends. Lady Louise, who went over to Paris for a few days to buy part of her trousseau, is having her wedding dress made by a little French working dressmaker whom she, and indeed many members of the Royal Family, have employed during the past year. She has had a good deal of the limelight of publicity turned upon her Maids of Honour since it was divulged that she was to have the honor of making the bride's wedding gown in silver Indian guise. She is, I believe, the wife of an English ex-officer, and has a large clientele among the action crowd of people who emulate Queen Mary in dress.

The Earl and Countess of Stratford have returned to their home in St. James's Square, after their Canadian trip, and are telling all their friends of their keen enjoyment of the visit. Whilst regretting that they had not time to see more of Eastern Canada, Lady Stratford is filled with admiration for the beauty of the West, and is very sincere in her appreciation of the warmth of Canadian hospitality. After spending a few days in town, Lord and Lady Stratford have gone down to their country home at Wroxleaze.

Mr. Nichols, of Edmonton, is the first Canadian to undergo the week's training in Girl Guiding at Foxlease, Lyndhurst, the lovely country house dedicated to Girl Guides. Mrs. Nichols tells me she had a wonderful week, and thoroughly enjoyed the training in all the many branches of a Girl Guide's education. The training, as every Guide knows, does not by any means stop short at the practical knowledge of nature, health rules, ambulance drill, etc., but includes more complicated psychological training, how to inspire the children to use their eyes and ears and get the best out of them. Part of the Guiders' training consists in putting themselves in the place of the Guides, and working under the candidates for the difficult Blenheim badges, and Mrs. Nichols found it as interesting as it was interesting to become a Brownie, a Girl Guide, or a Ranger, for an evening during her week's experience at Foxlease.

Mrs. Nichols has been attached to the 2nd Wimbledon Girl Guides, but on coming to stay at Earls Court she will be transferred to another company and continue to work for second and first-class badges.

INFLATION

When Sheba's Queen her treasure bore

To Solomon of old,
Spirits and jewels from her store
And diamonds gold.

The fairies dared not say her nay
Nor venture to refuse,
But counseled that the Queen should pay

In Sheba L.O.U.S.

And in these later days, the tribe
Not less afflicted be.

Succeeding medicine-men prescribe
That easy recipe,

The doctor staffs the ill
May be ministered and ease

But if it fail, the ill may still
Be measured to the dose.

The prime minister, the once by man

Men leisurely purvey

Electrically driven, may fan

The stagnant breath of trade;

The pretty policy connive

The practice of the Shah,

And printed numerals contrive
To gild the signat.

—H. B.

MAKE HASTE

In Ottawa a magistrate has hit on a scheme to put a damper on the speed hounds. Each man that appears before him on a charge of breaking the speed laws is fined ten dollars more than the previous man. Our advice is to get in on the ground foot while the price is still below $50.

—H. B.

COLONISTS PRACTICE

Certified seed will not always give good returns. In the majority of cases, however, it will be found to be far superior to any other stock. Some people are of the opinion that because we purchase certified seed

the resulting crop will be entirely

free from disease. This is a wrong impression for several reasons: (1).

The potatoes originally purchased as certified were probably not entirely

free from disease. It is practically impossible for potatoes to any degree absolutely free from disease.

(2). The symptoms of such diseases

as mosaic are more readily observed

under certain conditions than under others. Stock which has been certified in one district under dry conditions might show considerable mosaic

when planted in another where the soil contained an abundant supply of

moisture. (3). Some soils are naturally infected with disease organisms

and the highest grade seed may overcome this condition. (4). Planting

potatoes in the same field on

after year might lead to clean seed becoming infected.

Another factor which is frequently

overlooked, although very important,

is purity of variety. It is practically impossible, unless it be saved before real harvest, to remove the disease factor

from a seed crop.

It is important, therefore, of obtaining seed from fields which have been inspected during the growing season will be thoroughly resolved,

not on account of the disease factor

alone, but also on account of purity.

Plants producing improper blossoms

or foliage should be immediately removed from the field.

Farmer

Certified seed will not always give good returns. In the majority of cases, however, it will be found to be far superior to any other stock. Some people are of the opinion that because we purchase certified seed

the resulting crop will be entirely

free from disease. This is a wrong

impression for several reasons: (1).

The potatoes originally purchased as

certified were probably not entirely

free from disease. It is practically impossible for potatoes to any

degree absolutely free from disease.

(2). The symptoms of such diseases

as mosaic are more readily observed

under certain conditions than under

others. Stock which has been certified in one district under dry conditions might show considerable mosaic

when planted in another where the soil contained an abundant supply of

moisture. (3). Some soils are naturally infected with disease organisms

and the highest grade seed may

overcome this condition. (4). Planting

potatoes in the same field on

after year might lead to clean seed

becoming infected.

Another factor which is frequently

overlooked, although very important,

is purity of variety. It is practically

impossible, unless it be saved before real harvest, to remove the disease factor

from a seed crop.

It is important, therefore, of obtaining seed from fields which have been inspected during the growing

season will be thoroughly resolved,

not on account of the disease factor

alone, but also on account of purity.

Plants producing improper blossoms

or foliage should be immediately removed from the field.

Farmer

PANTAGES THEATRE

"Where Everybody Goes"
Tonight at 9 o'clock Xmas and Thursdays

Coming Next Week

The best and most extensive organization ever over the Pantages Circuit.

Plantation Days

A Southern musical comedy direct from The Palace, London, Eng.
30 STARS 30
Five Crackerjacks
Original Pepper Chorus

EDDIE BORDEN
Supported by "THE DUKE"—Sir Edward Martin and "Hazel of the Movies"—HAZEL MAYE in "MOMENTS HUMOROUS"

JULIA EDWARDS..... An unusual novelty
EVANS and WILSON..... Bright Bits of Musical Comedy
BILL and BLONDY..... "Just Days"
CENTURY COMEDY..... "FASHION FOLLIES"
JOSE SAXON and JACK FARRELL Present "THE ELOPERS"

DOMINION ALL WEEK

Thomas Meighan and Lila Lee in
"Woman Proof"

Thomas Meighan in George Ade story—you know what that means! A crackerjack role for the star; a barrel of real laughs; a bag of surprises; a picture without a flaw—another "Back Home and Broke." Usual Prices.

ROYAL—Today

The flaming romance of the young American and the Spanish dancer—a saint with painted lips and tapping heels.

Comedy - Weekly

SPECIAL BENEFIT WEEK

At the

PLAYHOUSE

"Cappy Ricks"

Wednesday and Thursday

"Grumpy"

Friday and Saturday

Saturday Matinee, 2:30 P.M.

Evenings at 8:30. Usual Prices.

COLUMBIA ALL WEEK

Big Double Feature Attraction

Jack Dempsey and Firpo Fight Pictures

For the world's heavyweight championship.

ALSO

"The Man From Lost River"

FEATURING HOUSE PETERS

A Magnificent Drama of the North Woods.

Drive Yourself

PHONE 1

CLOSED CARS

THE Brentwood Grill
Victoria's Largest, Finest Restaurant

Popular Prices

Corner Fort and Government

CAPITAL ALL WEEK

Rudyard Kipling's Great Story
"The Light That Failed"

Starring Jacqueline Logan, Percy Montmont, Sigrid Holmquist and David Torrence

NEWS SCOOP
International Horse Race Between Papyrus and Zev

MINIATURE CONCERT

Madame Margherita Gentile

Distinguished Operatic Mezzo-Soprano

(Artist pupil of Signor Inzerillo)

PERCY BURRASTON on the Capitol Concert Organ.

WOMAN LECTURER IS VISITOR IN CITY

Dr. Helen MacMurphy, of Toronto, Authority on Child Welfare, Unable to Accept Invitation

Dr. Helen MacMurphy, of Toronto, one of the outstanding Canadian women lecturers in medicine and clinical medicine and an authority on all matters pertaining to child welfare, is a visitor in this city for the week end. Dr. MacMurphy has been attending the annual conference of the Lower Mainland Women's Institutes at Vancouver, where she told something about the functions of the Child Welfare Division of the Department of Health at Ottawa, and its relation to voluntary organizations. It had been hoped that she could speak before the Women's Canadian Club in Victoria, before she left British Columbia, but this she finds it unable to do owing to an engagement which she had to speak on Tuesday evening in connection with a meeting of Women's Institutes there.

"There is no doubt that a great deal of progress is being made in child welfare work in the West as in the East," Dr. MacMurphy told a Colonist reporter yesterday. "She had not been out to the Coast for two years, and even in that short time she has found an appreciable advance in public sentiment on the question. It was evident to her, after listening to the discussions at the Women's Institutes conference and in conversation with different people that the public understanding of child welfare has advanced much. This she credited to the greatly increased general interest in all matters pertaining to better homes and public welfare, an interest which has been subscribed to by the press and the publicity which it has given to such questions. It was in the natural course of events that child welfare, which closely follows the progress made in other matters should have come to claim attention.

Dr. MacMurphy received her medical training at the Women's Medical College, Toronto, the Johns Hopkins Hospital, and the Women's Medical School, Philadelphia. She has held many positions of importance in the profession, being resident medical assistant at Toronto General Hospital for a time. She has been editor of The Canadian Nurse, lecturer in the Women's Medical College, Toronto, and an honorary member of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. She made a census of the feeble-minded of Ontario for the Provincial Government, and was appointed by the Ontario Government to represent that Province at the first annual conference of infant mortality in 1911. Her report on infant mortality in 1911 is still considered one of the standard works of reference on the subject.

Dr. MacMurphy is leaving tomorrow for Nelson, and from there will go direct to Ottawa.

BREAK A CHEST COLD WITH HEAT OF RED PEPPERS

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Rowies Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is relieved. If you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowies Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowies."

(Advt.)

EVA HART
STUDIO—Fridays 2 to 6
215 Stobart Building
Residence Phone 5050L

At the Playhouses

FAMOUS STORY IS SHOWN IN PICTURES

Picturization of Kipling's Story, "The Light That Failed," is Showing at Capitol Theatre This Week

AMUSEMENTS

The Screen
Capitol—"The Light That Failed," starring Jacqueline Logan.

Columbia—Dempsey-Firpo Fight Pictures.

Dominion—Thomas Meighan and Lila Lee in "Woman-Proof."

Royal—Richard Barthelmess and Dorothy Gish in "The Bright Shawl."

The Stage

Pantages—Vaudeville, commencing 9 o'clock, tonight.

Playhouse—"Cappy Ricks," Wednesday and Thursday.

COLUMBIA The great northwest THEATRE woods are really the central influence in the latest Goldwyn picture, "The Man From Lost River," which was presented at the Columbia Theatre last night. The action of Katherine Newlin Burt's photographic place is set in a lumber camp where the men lead crude lives close to nature. The softening influence of women is absent, though in the camp dwells an orphan girl, the pride of the men. Into this group comes a sophisticated Easterner who falls in love with the girl and marries her. The girl's secret entwining with the camp foreman, whom she has only adored the girl all the while, and it is the unworthiness of her husband in a time of crisis that both removes him from the scene and shows the girl the worth of a noble man's love. One of the marvelous scenes in this film shows the lumberjacks in the lumberjacks in the act of fellin a giant tree. The picture was taken on Lake Huntington, in the Sierras, on the Government reservation there. For outdoor scenic beauty and thrilling dramatic action, "The Man From Lost River" is one of the most effective pictures that Goldwyn has made this year.

Dickie's love-making is discouraged by Dick, who induces Torrence to go away and forget the girl. Enraged, he attacks the woman's attorney, but blindness prevents Dick from knowing. On hearing of Dick's misfortune, Maisie goes to him and cares for him, now that the light has gone. The ending for both is happy.

"The Light That Failed" is a powerful production, featuring the principal players in the picture is a fine cast of players, including Mabel Van Buren, Luke Cagney, Peggy Shaffer, Winston Miller and Mary Jane Irving.

BIG FIVE-ACT SHOW THIS WEEK AT THE PANTAGES THEATRE

The full show of five big acts forms the programme at the Pantages, with one show at 9 o'clock tonight.

Tomorrow and Thursday there will be the usual matinees at 3 o'clock and two night shows at 7 and 9.

Headlining the programme is Eddie "Tolable" David, in "Moments Humorous," set to become one of the best of the season's offerings.

Jose Saxon and Jack Farrell present their novelty satire, "The Elopement," which is full of laughs.

"Bright Bits of Musical Comedy" will be the offering of Pearl Evans and John R. Wilson. It is a clever programme of comedy patter and song.

Bill and Blondy in "Just Boys" offer a speedy line of comedy acrobatics and unusual banter, and the Pantagescope will show "Fashion Foibles," the latest Century comedy.

Richard Barthelmess Plays Title Role in Big Production Showing at Royal Theatre This Week

Richard Barthelmess has given us another classic of the silent drama.

Greater even than his former masterpiece, "Tolable David," is his new contribution, "The Bright Shawl," which is the First National picture presented by Inspiration Pictures, Inc., the Royalty.

Adapted by Edmund Goulding from Joseph Hergesheimer's colorful story of the days when Cuba was still under the yoke of Spanish tyranny, it is one of the most charming, vivid and moving romances yet presented on the screen.

Barthelmess has the role of a young American, Charles Abbott, who, on a visit to Havana, finds himself in a position which is invaluable to the rebels; for La Cavel, in order to gain information that is invaluable to the rebels, for La Cavel, is the favorite of Santacilia, a Spanish captain, who is the most despised officer in Cuba. Narcissa Eocabar, daughter of a leading Cuban family, for whom Abbott has formed a true affection, cannot understand his sympathies with Abbott, Santacilia is overcome by her heart, Abbott hastens to the rebels, bringing word in time to save them from the disaster that Santacilia's ruin would have brought about. He returns to Havana in time to witness John Willard's play, "The Cat and the Canary," which Kilburn Gordon, Inc., presents at the Royal Victoria on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 28 and 29. In fact, this drama is said to be so replete with thrills that people in attendance will wait for the fair heroine that she is in danger. "The Cat and the Canary" is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge of the woman of the same name involved in the famous "Bell Will Case." Alma Kruger, who plays Mammy, is a mystery play, and one of the leading characters is "Mammy." Pleasantly, the author, a San Francisco boy, created this particular character from his own knowledge

Letters to the Editor

His letter to the editor will be inserted whenever the proper signature and address are written. This rule applies to all letters.

Alderman Leeming's Views

Sir.—In your issue of November 8, Alderman Leeming was a strenuous opponent of the city tax rate both for 1923 and 1924. I notice also a reply to this wonderful production from E. B. Andrew, 644 Linden Avenue, who goes on to prove that Alderman Leeming's ideas are weighty.

Mr. Leeming apparently thinks he is similar to the North Star, that all men should follow, and that we should be glad to adopt his ideas, providing they were for the betterment of business generally.

He was not satisfied with his job for 1922, but is doing his best to influence people's minds for 1924 on the single tax question, and tells us we will be sure to run on the rocks providing it is adopted. He hopes the next year's City Council will call a meeting of the thinking the way he does. This North Star goes off in tell us that next year's improvements should not be taxed 32 1/2 per cent, but 80 per cent, or one-half of the improvement value.

Mr. Leeming's ideas are good which was valid at a little over $18,000 in 1923. That means, according to Ald. Leeming's ideas, that this house would be assessed at $4,000 at about 40 mills on the dollar, besides the land assessment. No wonder he states that "steady development and prosperity cannot be looked for."

His ideas are not sound, and anyone led away with such buncome as he produces is certainly traveling in the wrong direction. I wonder that Ald. Leeming should make such an exhibition of himself in the eyes of the public. He tells us about a lot at the corner of Broad and Johnson Streets being offered for sale at $9,000, and the taxes in 1923 were $99.51. Then he goes on to mention 86 mills on the dollar for next year. Mr. Leeming ought to know that the putting of reports like the above into circulation is bad information to pour into the minds of people who are moving and have moved in our city. He thinks he has got a sure cure for the life of a sick patient, but I would advise him to take some antidote for his nervous system, and leave 1924 to provide for itself.

T. J. THOMPSON,
1018 Olliphant Avenue, Victoria,
B.C., Nov. 12, 1923.

Barbers' Profession

Sir.—I request but a limited portion of your valuable paper for the defence of a friend.

I have always considered Mr. J. A. Shanks as one of the brightest minds Victoria, and I have reached that conclusion entirely by reading his letters to The Colonist. A statement appears to my mind in regard to your column on Saturday, and it claimed to be the united opinion of all the barbers in our fair city. I cannot and do not believe it. Moreover, I have spoken to several of the leading barbers in Victoria, and they claim to have the highest regard for Mr. Shanks.

GEOGE T. CONKLIN,
1047 Lillian Road, Victoria, B.C.,
November 4, 1923.

Tax On Motor Stages

Sir.—At a meeting of North Saanich Women's Institute, held on November 7, a letter was read regarding the proposed tax on motor stages, and all members present voted to sign a petition against the tax. (See Daily Colonist, Friday, November 9.)

In my own district a petition against the said tax had been largely signed, and I am told that thousands of people have signed a decided opinion on the subject.

The matter was brought up at a meeting of the Farmers' Institute, held at Metchosin on October 18 last, when the Hon. Dr. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, reported to have said that he had no knowledge of any such proposed tax. Is this another case of going off at hockeck?

ALICE E. BROWN,
Langford Station Postoffice, B.C.,
November 9, 1923.

Plant Regulations

Sir.—Speaking of the weird "Plant Regulations," the product of an Ottawa braintrust, I wish you would kindly publish, for the benefit of other unfortunate law experimenters, this wise folly. In July I ordered a small quantity of seeds from Holland, asking that they be sent by mail as usual. When these were ready for shipment the new "regulations" became effective. The shippers, doubtless frightened by these, sent the parcel by express, with the following ruling: Weight of parcel, 3 lbs; value, shillings, 9.9; cost of transit, $3.65. Postage would have been two shillings.

Following is a list of the bulbs, none of which can be supplied by any nurseryman or bulb grower in Canada. In other words, are all species mortgaged irretrievably: Tulipa Kaufmanniana, 2s; 12 Tulipa Persica, 1d; 12 Tulipa mixed, 2s; 12 Trillium, Violacea, 2s; 50 Gladiolus Nanus, 1s; 1 Liatris Splendens, 4d; 1 Tulipa Eliechieri, 1d. Total, 9s 9d.

By the prohibition of small parcels the introduction of the rarer bulbs in this country has been effectively stifled. However, I do not believe that the Wise Men of the East, responsible for this iniquity, would have the slightest idea if the list I have given means fish, flesh or good red herring.

NORMAN W. F. RANT,
"Angela," Victoria, B.C., Nov. 9, 1923.

The Compton Players

Sir.—I was delighted to see so many excellent letters on behalf of Mr. Compton and his players in your issue of today. But we need them, and more still, if we are to entertain any hopes of retaining Mr. Compton with us.

I believe that Victoriaans are just beginning to wake up to the fact that Mr. Compton is a great Actor and one whose name is likely to rank in future years with such men as William Terris, Martin Harvey and Tom Hulce, nothing of his father and grandfather, and that we are greatly privileged in having him amongst us.

He has given us some of the veriest gems of English literature, and interpreted such famous roles as The Stranger in the "Taming of the Third Floor Back," and Mathias in "The Merchant of Venice," with so great a degree of skill that he has held the panty audience spellbound. He has shown good seed, but it has fallen on barren ground, and Mr. Compton has received little reward for his efforts other than the sincere appreciation of his small band of regular patrons.

It will be an outrage if Mr. Compton is compelled to leave us, and a great reflection on the intelligence of the public if we do not support his excellent company for a season.

Surely there are sufficient people in this city whose ideals of entertainment are not completely satisfied by the photographic concoctions from Hollywood, who do not want all their thinking done for them, but rather welcome the opportunity of a little mental exercise with their amusement.

We have had many stock companies visit this city; we have had amateur and semi-amateur performances, but never have we had anything that could be mentioned in the same breath as Mr. Compton's company, except on the rare occasions when one of the great names has visited this city with a visiting company.

Last night I went to see "The School for Scandal," full of the eager anticipation that comes with the knowledge that one is going to witness a good performance. I expected to see something good, but my expectations were greatly surprised by all-round excellence of the production. The setting and costume were beyond reproach, but, above all, everyone lived their parts, and I was completely carried back to the eighteenth century for a few brief hours.

We simply cannot afford to let Mr. Compton leave us so soon. Let us get together and endeavor to prevail upon him to remain here. Let us do our best to personal effort try to remove some of the obstacles with which he is confronted, and we will have our first opportunity next week when we can fill every seat for every performance. Time is getting short and we need action. If sufficient of us have the will to keep Mr. Compton with us, we will find the way.

CYRIL B. HOSHER,
143 Government Street, Victoria,
B.C., Nov. 18, 1923.

Tomboala

Sir.—In a news item in today's paper concerning the tomboala raffle for a motor car, I am quoted as saying to the committee, "If the net proceeds are not sufficient to cover expenses it will be illegal and I will see that you are prosecuted."

No such statement or suggestion was offered by me, but I will say, if drawings of this kind are legal, let us in all conscience save stop raiding the Chinese, for I am, perhaps selling a ten-cent lottery ticket.

Every member of the community irrespective of color or creed should receive the same treatment.

WALTER E. STANIELAND,
Commissioner of Police,
City Hall, Victoria, B.C., Nov. 19, 1923.

The Current Run

Sir.—Sir John Simon's anxiety about the price of buns is amusing, but perhaps not in the way he intended it to be. The value of the currants in the buns would not be sufficient to cover the cost of the bun, but it might slightly reduce the profit.

Possibly there might be some consolation for this in the fact that daddy had a hard struggle to get a living. I discovered many years back that no man used a bad argument if he had a better at his service.

If this is Sir J. S.'s reason why "muffed" in any case let him have the bun.

C. J. BROWN,
903 Horwood Road, Victoria West,
Nov. 19, 1923.

Lady Astor's Work as Representative

Sir.—Sir John Simon's anxiety about the price of buns is amusing, but perhaps not in the way he intended it to be. The value of the currants in the buns would not be sufficient to cover the cost of the bun, but it might slightly reduce the profit.

Possibly there might be some consolation for this in the fact that daddy had a hard struggle to get a living. I discovered many years back that no man used a bad argument if he had a better at his service.

If this is Sir J. S.'s reason why "muffed" in any case let him have the bun.

C. J. BROWN,
903 Horwood Road, Victoria West,
Nov. 19, 1923.

Twenty-odd years ago: A Virginian belle, dazzling all night in Richmond, was riding to luncheon in the Alabama hills, playing a great deal, yet always brilliant, alert, witty, with a mind that made up in natural flash what it lacked in serious training; altogether fascinating — a typical Southern girl in her love of social gaieties.

"Today: A British viscountess, wealthy beyond imagination, still beautiful, turning from the world's pleasures with which she has been surprised to seek new excitements in the field of British politics; using her old wit and fluency, and sometimes displaying her old temper, but the same Nancy Langhorne who contributed to the fame of the five Langhorne sisters and made their beauty

a by-word."

Such a word picture of the woman who was famous before and became more famous because of the fact that she was the first woman elected to the British House of Commons.

The first made mirror of Japan is preserved at the

John Hawkins opened the slave trade for England.

A LETTER TO MY SISTER

Victoria, B.C.,
November 10, 1923.

My Dear Gladys:—The first time I ever saw you working you were bending over a wash-tub. It was twice years ago, but I have never forgotten the picture you made. You were such a little woman and the wash-tub was so big.

You were getting out a big Monday washing for your family. It was a wonderful sight. You scrubbed with such energy and determination.

There were mountains of clothes, but you made nothing of that. You attacked them with fury—with ferocity. You plunged your arms into the steaming tubs and rubbed away as if you were rubbing out sin and wickedness itself from the world. You wrestled with those clothes as if they were Evil Spirits. And when you finally had them, row on row, snow white and spotless, on the line, one felt as if one had witnessed a battle and a tremendous victory.

That battle has been fought by you, week after week, for twelve years. Fifty-two weeks in a year—six hundred and twenty-four triumphant washdays. Not one of them has ever got the better of you. A splendid, miraculous achievement!

What I am wondering about today is whether you have had to pay too much for it, whether all the women like you have had to pay too much for it.

Yesterday I saw you as you crossed the street after finishing a day's work.

You are still a comparatively young woman; but you looked like an old woman then; old, old and tired.

One can drive a willing horse too hard, and that is what life has done to you. All that splendid energy and enthusiasm that you have pounded out week by week on the wash-board, poured away in all those tubfuls of dirty soap-suds. What a pity that you have had to spend it all on a mechanical task; that more of that priceless commodity could not have been saved for human living.

Your loving brother,
JERRY.

Now that you have read the above just think of the Victoria Steam Laundry.

out that in Canada women may vote at 21 years of age, whereas in Britain they are 25, and his comment was, "Well, you are a much more progressive country than we are." Then he was asked: "Do you think the British Parliament would be improved by the election of more women members?"

"Yes, if they were of the right sort. We now have three." He paid a tribute to the intelligence and cleverness of Lady Nancy Astor, M.P.

Lady Astor is not alone notorious for her ability, but the fact that she is the first woman member of the British House of Commons. Herbert Sidebotham, in his very interesting book, "Political Profiles," says that "apart of her million-dollar income, she is the average working woman in Britain gets her woman's point of view very much more quickly than the average middle-class men. Her sympathy with labor is described as quite free from affectation and in certain directions very deep.

While Lloyd George the other day decided to discuss prohibition in the House of Commons, an interviewer against entering "the realm of politics," he added that "too much money is spent for liquor in England—it would be better if the consumption of liquor were less—but only a small percentage of British people add to it."

This is perhaps the principal subject of Lady Astor's work; the second is all matters concerning family life; and the third is friendly relations with the United States.

Mr. Sidebotham remarks that as a speaker Lady Astor frankly disappoints the House. Conspicuous among her womanly qualities are mother wit and a ready tongue, simplicity, naturalness and directness which make her popular with the public.

Speaking of the influence of enfranchised women in political affairs in England, the charge is made—that the compliment is paid—that they are less under the control of the party machine than the men; and there has not developed among the women the notion that they would vote as women in opposition to men. Experience has already given ground for the belief that they have no strong party ties, and pass easily from one side to another.

Mr. Sidebotham thinks that "it is better that the first woman member should be a woman of real merit, with interests that run entirely in the direction of social conservatism," and he adds that the suffrage movement threw up dozens of women who, in politics, are far better than most men at their particular profession. The popularity of Lady Astor, while her "parliamentary achievement has not been great, it has served to indicate the most important service that women members, at any rate for the present, are not those who can discuss men's politics most like men, but those who can introduce new subjects that may have overlooked by the public of view not even suspected."

Possibly there might be some consolation for this in the fact that daddy had a hard struggle to get a living. I discovered many years back that no man used a bad argument if he had a better at his service.

If this is Sir J. S.'s reason why "muffed" in any case let him have the bun.

C. J. BROWN,
903 Horwood Road, Victoria West,
Nov. 19, 1923.

The Overcoats

Sir.—I simply cannot afford to let Mr. Compton leave us so soon. Let us get together and endeavor to prevail upon him to remain here. Let us do our best to personal effort try to remove some of the obstacles with which he is confronted, and we will have our first opportunity next week when we can fill every seat for every performance. Time is getting short and we need action. If sufficient of us have the will to keep Mr. Compton with us, we will find the way.

CYRIL B. HOSHER,
143 Government Street, Victoria,
B.C., Nov. 18, 1923.

AT $24.45—Genuine English Gabardine
Raincoats. Good coats, every one of them.

AT $24.45—A few Ulsterettes, with or without belts. Really wonderful value.

AT $37.45—Genuine English Aquascutum and Rainasop Overcoats.

AT $11.85—"Craft" Rain-bury Overcoats of showerproof tweed.

Lois More Overcoats Besides

the Above

SALE of Men's Overcoats of Men's Suits

Regular prices absolutely ignored. Just note these Sale Prices. Better still, see our windows, and still better, come in the store and see the rest of the snaps. No shop-soiled garments—all brand new and stylish.

AT $24.45—Genuine English Gabardine
Raincoats. Good coats, every one of them.

AT $32.45—A line of Serge and Fancy Worsted

WRIGLEY'S

Sealed!

At great expense we developed the product to meet our ideals in quality and flavor.

Then we spared no expense to make the package worthy of the contents.

Sealed Tight — Kept Right

Pure chicle and other ingredients of highest quality obtainable, made under modern sanitary conditions.

Keeps teeth white

Aids digestion

Wrigley's Doublemint is a delicious peppermint flavor.

After Every Meal

AMERICAN CARS ARE IN FAVOR ABROAD

General Motors Corporation Forms a Danish Stock Company, With Headquarters in Copenhagen

Further proof that American motorcars are rapidly invading foreign countries is shown by the General Motors Corporation, which has formed a Danish stock company, with headquarters in Copenhagen, Denmark. Cars manufactured by this company will be distributed from the Copenhagen plant. Bodies and stocks will be carried in order that service may be maintained.

The new organization will market cars in Russia, Germany, Austria, Poland, Finland and many of the lesser countries of Europe, officials of the concern announced.

Haynes cars are to be introduced in New Zealand within a short time, according to a factory announcement made recently, and the Australian Auto Import Company, of Auckland, has an appointed distributor, the director of a local concern. The Australasian Auto Import Company is one of the most widely known automobile concerns in New Zealand.

You Are Welcome to a test. See coupon

Nice Teeth

They mean so much that you should learn how millions now attain them

You see whiter teeth now everywhere, and people smile to show them. Compare them with dingy teeth — teeth coated with a film. Mark how much those prettier teeth add to charm and beauty.

Then make this test and you will learn how this new beauty came.

That cloud is film

The cloud on teeth is film—the viscous film which is left. Much of it resists the tooth brush, clings and stays. Soon it becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. That is why teeth lose beauty.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Under old methods, very few people escaped those film-caused troubles.

Dental science has found two ways to meet this situation. One disintegrates the film at all stages of formation. The other removes it without harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was created to apply them daily. The name is Peppermint.

That tooth paste has brought a new dental era to millions of homes the world over.

Folks see and feel the new effects

Peppermint brings other new results. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—the neutralizer of mouth acids. It multiplies the starch digestant in saliva—there to digest starch deposits.

Old methods reduced these protective agents. This new method gives them multiplied power.

These results are quickly seen and felt. No one can doubt them, can question their benefits.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

You will be surprised and delighted. Cut out coupon now.

Protect the Enamel
Peppermint disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combinator which contains harsh grit.

Made in Canada
Pepsodent
The New-Day Dentifrice

Now advised by leading dentists the world over

10-Day Tube Free
THE PEPSODENT COMPANY,
Dept. T, 101 George St., Toronto, Ont.
Mail 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent to

Only one tube to a family.

European War Front Is Now Hard to Trace

Nothing could well be more interesting for those who saw service in France and Flanders than to revisit the front to-day as it appears to the eye in 1923, but it seems that nothing could be more bewildering. Trenches men knew by every inch are no longer discoverable. Places and spots and woods that appeared to be indelibly fixed in the mind can no longer be located. The very houses and villages which men had their abodes are reconstructed or grown over beyond recognition. Even the outstanding objects that directed gun fire and guided troops going in or coming out of the line, seem to have vanished. So complete is the transformation of the region that it is accomplished. Power gardens now spread fragrance upon the air where before only the poppies were beautiful; children's voices ring out where the whining of the shells shrieked death. The change effected is as wonderful as it is unbelievable. Those who lived through the war's horrific eruptions can hardly believe so much civilization could replace the desolation that was all that existed. And, perhaps, more comprehensive, those now visiting the front for the first time are shocked by the little stretches of visible, forever unable to imagine what that little visible in 1918 could have been like in November, 1918.

A tour of the Vanishing Front has just been completed by Hoyd Cable for The London Times. He knew it well for four years as an army correspondent, and yet, going from Antwerp to Ypres he had the greatest difficulty in tracing spots he sought and even in finding villages in which he had for months been located. He found that the Belgians, perhaps, had got farther on with the rebuilding of their cities and towns than the French—but that the French had performed miracles in reclaiming the shell-shocked land and replanting it with the peaceful fruits of agriculture.

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Somme, although I was there for nearly six months, went over most of the ground again and again, studied it on the maps often scores of times a day. This is not because the battle-ground of Waterloo is a tiny spot compared to the Somme, because I found it just as difficult to trace out one corner of a battlefield in Flanders personally familiar to me and not as big as Waterloo."

"It is rather because all our old familiar landmarks have almost disappeared, because where we could see the road or the hillside, where yards up to five miles without any trees to obstruct our view, there are now clusters of farms, rows of houses, complete villages crowning the heights, low, but dense clumps of wood and bush, where we used to know only mounds of brick and stone, ghastly remains of trees and shrubs."

Vimy's Fields of Dark Crosses

"The ground is still being cleared of unexploded shells and bombs and grenades, the last being especially plentiful, as one can well believe, remembering the whole sackful that one used to come across in odd corners of an old battlefield, even after our own salvage men had been over the ground. I still find here and there a good harvest to be reaped of iron and copper and lead—all plentiful enough, and all worth francs."

Waterloo Contract
"I have found it easier to trace on the ground the story of the Battle of Waterloo than to follow the course of the fight on the Som

The Colonist's Pictorial Page

Busmen are officially taught politeness at the training school at Chelsea, England. Mr. George Savidge, known as the courtesy lecturer, has taught over 20,000 London bus conductors the value of good manners

Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg, wife of the former senator of Minnesota, will accompany her husband to England on his appointment as American ambassador to the Court of St. James

There are many fishing lakes in the picturesque Caribou district of British Columbia where the waters not only abound in game at this time of the year, but also the shores, and where one can get a thrill of a lifetime

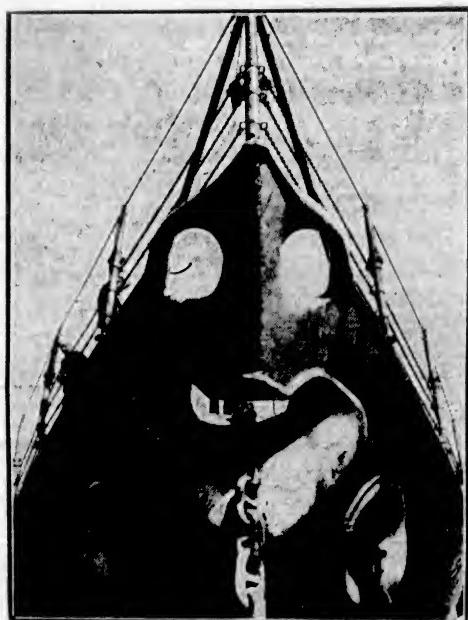

Great credit is given to Captain Angus Walters, skipper of the Canadian trophy holder, Bluenose, in the manner in which he handled his schooner to get first position crossing the line against the American challenger, Columbia

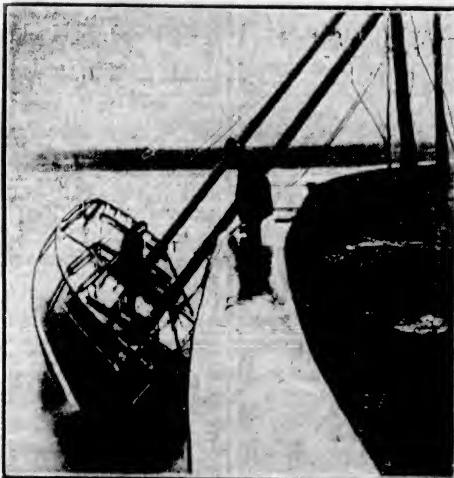

The Prince Regent and the Empress of Japan pay frequent visits to the overcrowded hospitals in the quake and fire ravaged districts of Tokio. Photograph shows the empress visiting one of the few hospitals left standing

A big demonstration was recently held in Dublin against the flogging bill, the Free State executions and the detention of prisoners in jail. Photograph shows a street representation of a prisoner being flogged

With what look like eyes, the bow of this mammoth battleship vividly resembles a monster of the sea. A view is seen of the U.S.S. Colorado, the latest and most modern of Uncle Sam's navy

After the gale that swept the Atlantic coast had died down, the Harpoon, W. W. Nutting's yacht, lay at the sea wall at Fort Totten, badly damaged. The masts were entangled with wires

It took a policeman to hold the line against a band of German peasants, who are seen anxiously waiting for the farmers to finish the harvest that they may pick up what is left in the fields

William Steinmetz, last year international outdoor title holder and Harry Kaskey, national outdoor champion of the United States, have been selected as part of a skating team which will represent America in the Olympic games

Captain Rhea Crawford, Salvation Army lassie, who created quite a sensation on Broadway recently when her meeting was broken up by the police, is now resting in Florida, preparatory to another campaign

A twill two-piece model of slim and simple lines with cuffs and collar of silk broadcloth makes an effective costume for fall wear. A felt hat completes the outfit

Breffni Beggs, Toronto boy, who won first place among 10,000 competitors in a recent international contest held in New York to pick out the best amateur boy actor, shown with Bertram Forsythe of the Hart House theatre, who trained him

Well, look who's here! "Steve" Donoghue, champion jockey of England is seen in unfamiliar garb leaving the church after Lady Evelyn Herbert's wedding. He has ridden for the family many times

A Mart for Busy Readers—House and Business Property for Sale and Exchange

AUTOMOBILES
(Continued)

SPECIAL PRICES ON USED CARS.

$150 CHEVROLET touring, as new.

$250 CHEVROLET touring, as good.

$200 OVERLAND touring.

$400 FORD touring. This car is in good order. 1921 Model.

$450 FORD Model T. Running. Painted and reconditioned.

$475 CHEVROLET touring. Painted and reconditioned. 1921 Model.

$425 OVERLAND Roadster. Reconditioned.

$750 F.R. CHEVROLET Roadster. Painted and in first-class order.

$900 A bargain. A FORD touring. Almost new. A bargain.

$550 BABY GRAND CHEVROLET touring.

$550 CHEVROLET touring.

$950 MCLAUGHLIN Master Six, reconditioned. Reconditioned and ready to run.

BEGG MOTOR CO. LTD.

112 View Street Phone 2882

USED CAR BAROAINS

1920 DODGE Brothers' Touring.

1920 CADILLAC "V-16" Sedan.

1920 CHEVROLET "V-8" Touring.

1920 FORD One-Ton Truck Chassis.

1920 FORD, just overhauled and reconditioned.

One MAXWELL 1920 sedan, running order.

One PAIGE. A good sturdy car and good runner. A used car.

Terms can be run on any car.

N.Y. BROTHERS

112 View Street Phone 2882

1920 CORD TIRES

Regular $11.50

OUR PRICE $12.50

No seconds.

Absolutely new stock. Fully guaranteed.

THOR PLUMLEY, LTD.

Broughton St. Phone 671. Victoria, B.C.

BEARINGS

NEW DEPARTURE

TIMKEN AND BEARINGS

MILWAUKEE DIS CARS

AND BRONZE BACK

H. ANGUS

888 Yates Street

ASK ANY OF OUR SALESMEN WHY WE CAN GIVE SUCH EXCEPTIONAL VALUES IN USED CARS

We Offer the Following:

MCLAUGHLIN, CADILLAC, CHEVROLET, OLDSMOBILE, DODGE, FORD, OVERLAND, STUDIBAKER

PRICES ARE VERY LOW

TERMS ARE VERY EASY

H. A. DAVIS, LTD.

McLaughlin Buick Agency

888 Yates St. Phone 2894

Have You Tried the 1924 McLaughlin?

TIRE BARGAINS TO CLEAR

* ONLY 1st Diamond highest grade cord tire, 215. Money double bar, 115/40. Latest model. Good condition. Other heavy service $19.75 EACH

* ONLY 1st Diamond highest grade cord tire, 215. Money double bar, 115/40. Ford one-ton truck. $33.50 EACH

* 1924 DIAMOND fabric tire, 215. EACH

JAMESON MOTORS, LIMITED

740 BROUGHTON ST.

PHONE 2244

CYCLES AND MOTORCYCLES

A TTENTION!—Burgess Hale's Motor Cycle, 215. Money double bar, 115/40. Latest model. Good condition. Perfect like new. 125/25. lady bicycle, 115/40. Latest model. Good condition. speed. 115, almost new. Raichle, 115. All new wheels fully guaranteed. 541 Johnson St. (Dept. B) (see under Government Street).

HARRY DAVIDSON two-cylinder motor bike, guaranteed. 115. Mac's Motor Bike Street.

AUTOS FOR HIRE

SMART Transport, limousine, for hire. Wedding, etc. $15 per hour.

Wedding, dances, etc. Phone 118.

LOST AND FOUND

POINTE—215. Owner can have same or better. Not lost applying to McMorran's Garage, 771 Johnson St.

LORT—Black account book of no use to the owner. The owner is 115. Window Read Can Bay. Phone 7411.

LORT—Lady's face bag containing keys and treasury auto parts, either no name. Read and return. 115. Window Read Can Bay. Phone 7411.

LORT—A gold brooch, with mother of pearl and rubies. Found. Read Can Bay. Reward. Phone 6111.

LORT—A solid brown, leather jacket, value by owner. Phone 6111.

LORT—Wednesday, a gold signet ring, with "J.W." engraved on it. Reward. Phone 2251. J. Hodder, 1945 Richardson Street.

STRAYED from Lake, November 6, 1923, wire-haired female terrier. Reward. G. Thompson.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

A RE is looking for a Hotel Apartment.

RENTING—Business house, as new.

BARGAIN—EXTRAORDINARY—The whole business centrally located, beautifully fitted. Owner valued. Read and return. 115. Johnson St.

HARRY AMPLIFIERS

115 Union Bank Building, Victoria, B.C.

NEW BUSINESS SPECIALS

CAIN'S—New business in good disorder. Read and return.

CANDLES—Groceries and School Supplies for all ages. 115. Johnson St.

CONFETTI RICE, Tobacco, etc., near Chesterfield. Phone 115. Johnson St.

COFFEE—Candy and Confectionery

Business section, as new. 115.

COUNTRY Grocery and Marimall, your

Read and return. 115. Johnson St.

DRUGSTORE—Grocery, hardware, etc.,

etc. Read and return. 115. Johnson St.

FURNITURE moving, storage and transport. Read and return. 115. Johnson St.

GROCERY—Grocery and Marimall, your

Read and return. 115. Johnson St.

JOHN'S BAKERY—Grocery, etc.,

etc. Read and return. 115. Johnson St.

KNITTED CLOTHING—Dried Candy and other Canned Goods. 115. Johnson St.

CROWN REALTY & INVESTMENT CO.

The Business Specialist

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES
(Continued)

COMPANY requires $1,000 to $1,500 for new business demands. Should considerate interest, lower than 115. Victoria.

Do you want a fire business? We have a full list of all kinds at reasonable prices. Crown Realty & Investment Co.

115 Government St., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up

to investigation, give us particulars and we will do our best to help you.

For further particulars apply to

Business Department, 115, Crown Realty &

Investment Co., Victoria, B.C.

Do you want to sell your business? If

the price is right and it will stand up to investigation, give us particulars and we will

Marine and Transportation

EMPEROR MAKES PORT FROM EAST

PASSENGERS FOR UNITED STATES LEAVE LINER HERE

Local People Return from Orient—Japanese Oranges Arrive for Christmas Market

With 255 passengers, a light list reflecting the present dull season of Asia, Captain L. D. Douglas, arrived from Hong Kong, Shanghai and Japan yesterday morning. Forty-nine of the travelers were first class, seventy-second and one hundred and sixty-third. Twenty-six sailor cabin passengers landed here, most of them en route to the United States.

The local landing list included: Mr. Elmer S. Knight of Cordova Bay, a young Victoria man returning from trip to Hawaii; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bowes, of New York; Mr. E. Schweninger, Monterey, Cal.; Mr. K. Tatsuura, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilson, Monterey, Cal.; Mrs. Carl Crow, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, of Tokio; Mr. E. E. Ross, Bhamail; Miss Margaret Ussher, an English teacher, who plans to spend the next six months in Victoria before proceeding on her homeward trip to England; Mr. and Mrs. Katzenbach, Seattle; Mrs. A. Anderson, Shanghai; Mr. and Mrs. Maynard, of Chilliwack, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Adams and daughter, of Colorado; Captain Hjalmar Anderson, a Seattle seafaring man; Miss E. Appel, Seattle; Fred Knut, U.S. Marine Corps, returning to Mare Island Navy Yard, California; Mr. Otojiro Kodzuki, a prosperous Japanese farmer, of Sidney, B.C., back from a visit to his native soil; and John Singh and a fellow countryman, returning to Victoria from India.

First Oranges Arrive

Mr. H. S. Kirkland, a Vancouver businessman, made the first passenger. He has been spending some months in Japan. Major E. P. Brown, of Toronto, with Mrs. Brown, was en route to that city after a business trip across the Pacific.

The Asia brought in the first large shipment of Japanese oranges for the Christmas season. Most of the sixty boxes weighed 50 lbs. and contained 100 boxes of the Japanese fruit. Mails to the amount of $30 bags, 300 for the United States, was also landed here.

The weather on the way across was fine, officers reported. A southwest wind a day before making port was the only unpleasantness encountered. There was general concern for news of the Empress, who struck some of the crew fearing Vancouver might be so tied up that they would have to help work the ship on making port. They were relieved to hear that there was no scarcity of dock labor.

Yokohama was visited as usual by the Empress on this voyage. The deviation at still is helpless and the ruins of her one-time fine buildings, with only a few tents and shacks remaining.

O.S.K. Ship Brings First Japan Fruit

The O.S.K. steamer Manila Maru was put into port at the Orient. She left for Seattle after landing seventy tons of cargo and some passengers here. The freight included oranges from Japan, the first of the season.

SHIPS PASS UP

Although yesterday was a holiday ashore, ships were active at sea as usual. In addition to the Empress of Asia, which docked in the morning, numerous steamers were about during the day. The Japanese steamship, Asuka, came up to Union Bay for bunkers at 6:30 p.m. At 8 a.m. the West Nippon came along from South America and passed up to Powder Point, Nanose Bay, with a cargo of coal for the explosives plant located there. At 10 a.m. the spruce carrier El Cisne went up to Vancouver from Los Angeles. Outward bound, the Royal Mailer Loch Goli passed by early yesterday morning. He left the ship, after facing the immigration battery. Mr. Wilson turned in bewilderment to bystanders, asking: "What, after all, is this thing they call nationality?"

INDIANS FIND MAN HALF DEAD AT SEA

LOST HUNTER'S SHOTS IGNORED BY PASSING SHIP

Prince Rupert Man Constructs Raft of Oars and Logs and Sets Sail to Render Help

PRINCE RUPERT, Nov. 12.—Half dead from hunger and cold, British Columbia's last Indian hunter, Tom Headstrom, today aboard an improvised raft. Headstrom lost himself while hunting on Pitt Island. He tore his overskins into strips and bound a few small logs together, then cast off into the channel in the hope of flagging a passing ship. When a ship was in sight he fired his last cartridges, only to see the boat continue on its way unheeding. When the Indians found him he was half unconscious, but he is now recovering in Prince Rupert Hospital.

U.S. WRITER HERE FINDS WIFE WANTS MORE NATIONALITY

Material for a new mystery tale was secured by Mr. Harry L. Will, well-known American writer for action for The Saturday Evening Post and other journals, when he landed at Victoria yesterday from the Empress of Asia en route, with his wife, to his home in California, after a trip to Australia and the Orient.

Mr. Wilson, it developed during the immigration inspection, was of Dutch birth. That made no difference to the Canadian officials, who classified her as an American on the score of her marriage to one of that nationality. In the eyes of official America, however, she was a foreigner. Wives are not so subservient to husbands in the United States that they cannot have nationality of their own. Consequently, although Mr. Wilson might freely step again on his native soil, Mrs. Wilson must be regarded as a Hindu, according to United States immigration officers, and would be required, please, first of all to pay the head tax of $8 before being permitted to re-enter the land which has been her home for many years.

When he left the ship, after facing the immigration battery, Mr. Wilson turned in bewilderment to bystanders, asking: "What, after all, is this thing they call nationality?"

SCHOONER WRECKED

PRINCE RUPERT, Nov. 10.—The fishing schooner Keyesa, Capt. Arthur Oswald, ran on a reef a few miles from here this afternoon and punctured her hull. It is expected that the vessel will be floated.

SHIP INFORMATION

Ship Radio Reports

(By Canadian Government Wireless)

Positions at 8 P.M., Nov. 12.

CANADIAN WINNER bound for United Kingdom, 280 miles south of Flattery; Canadian Traveler, bound Australia, 45 miles north, 127.08 west; Ascot, bound Vancouver, 360 miles from Vancouver; Canadian Rover, Ocean Queen, 100 miles from Flattery; H. T. Harper, Port Weir for Richmond, 440 miles from Richmond; H. W. Baxter, San Pedro for Blaine, 275 miles from Blaine.

POSITIONS 8 P.M., Nov. 11.

Yoshida Maru No. 2, inbound, 1,000 miles from Estevan; Canadian Transporter, Victoria, for Yokohama, 515 miles west of Victoria; Grace Dollar, San Francisco, for Portland, 80 miles south; Columbia, 340 miles from Victoria; Maru, for Vancouver, 45.12 miles, 173.55 east; City of Victoria, Kobe for Coos Bay, 1,000 miles from Coos Bay; Aragon Maru, outbound, 50.45 north, 173.33 west; Somedono Maru, inbound, 2,200 miles from Estevan; President Jefferson, bound Victoria, 195 miles from Seattle; Lucifer, bound for Honolulu, 1,451 miles from Seattle; E. D. Kingsley, Bunker Bay for San Francisco, 20 miles south of Flattery; Nomentum, Portland for Yokohama, 999 miles from Astoria; Nevada, bound Seattle and Vancouver, 10 miles from Seattle; Shinko-

positions 8 P.M., Nov. 10.

FROM MONTREAL To Cherbourg—Southampton—Austria Nov. 21 ... Minnedosa

To Belfast—Glasgow Nov. 22 ... Matagorda

To Liverpool Nov. 23 ... Montreal

FROM QUEBEC To Liverpool Nov. 28 ... Matagorda

FROM MONTREAL To Cherbourg—Southampton—Austria Nov. 21 ... Minnedosa

To Belfast—Glasgow Nov. 22 ... Matagorda

To Liverpool Nov. 23 ... Montreal

FROM QUEBEC To Liverpool Nov. 28 ... Matagorda

EXTRA SAILINGS FROM ST. JOHN'S Nov. 13 ... 88 Montrose, to Liverpool

To Cherbourg—Southampton and Liverpool Dec. 12 ... 88 Montrose, to Belfast—Glasgow

Apply to Agents Everywhere or J. J. FORTIER, Gen. Agt., C.P.R. Station, Vancouver, Telephone 1000, Can. Pac. Ry., Traffic Agents.

MAKES RESERVATIONS NOW

TO STOP A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

Tablets

To Stop A Cold In One Day

Take

DAVID SPENCER, LTD.
BEST QUALITIES Store Hours—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Wednesday to 1 p.m. SUPERIOR VALUES

Golden Jubilee Sale

Children's Book Week, During Which We Are Making a Special Showing in the Book Department

Children's Well-Known Books Beautifully Illustrated

Hans Bunker, illustrated by Mapes Dodge	$4.00
At the Back of the North Wind, illustrated	$4.00
The Blue Fox, by Frank Goodwin	$4.50
Moby Dick, by Mel Schaffter	$4.00
A Book of Children's Verses, illustrated	$3.75
Tales Told by the Gander, by Mead Schaffer	$2.75
Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, illustrated	$3.25
My Book of Stories by the Poets, illustrated	$2.75

Nelson's Stories Retold for Boys and Girls, Each $1.00

Ivanhoe, Waverley, The Talisman, Peveril of the Peak, by Walter Scott. Each	$1.00
Oliver Twist, Little Nell, Domby and Son, Barnaby Rudge, David Copperfield, Great Expectations, Tale of Two Cities. Nicholas Nickleby, by Chas. Dickens. Each	$1.00
The Tower of London, by Harrison Arnsworth.	$1.00
Books by Robert Louis Stevenson: Treasure Island, Kidnapped, Catriona. Each	$1.50
Bound Books for boys and girls by well known authors, including Ballantyne, Henty, Allcott, Kingston and others. Each, 50c, 75c and	$1.00

Globe-Wernicke Bookcases

You will cherish your books more when you see them arrayed to advantage in a neat, well made Globe-Wernicke Bookcase. The Globe-Wernicke is known throughout the dominion as one of the most perfect made, and those we offer are of the best.
Quartered Oak Bookcase, consisting of three sections, base and top, finished in old English or fumed. Golden Value at	$36.50
Bookcases of mahogany or walnut finish; made of birch and consisting of three sections, base and top. Golden Value, each	$36.50
Solid Oak Bookcases of three sections, base and top. These are finished in fumed or old English and are Golden Value at	$29.50
Furniture, 2nd Floor

New Millinery Golden Values

We have a new shipment from the American markets of special Metal and Velvet Turbans, the latest ideas for dressy Winter and Early Spring wear. Golden Values, $12.50 to	$15.00
New Satin Draped Turbans and Soft Covered Hats, with rolled brims. These are offered in black, brown and taupe, with gold and steel metal lace trimmings. There are also pokes with fur edge. Golden Values, $12.00 to	$14.00
Assorted Trimmed Velvet, Felt and Duvetyn Hats, large, medium and small shapes; all colors	$1.95
Children's Tams, 69c, $1.50 and	$1.95
Millinery, 1st Floor

Children's Flannelette Gowns Golden Values

Children's Flannelette Gowns, white and colored, made in slip-over styles, with scalloped neck and sleeves. The colors include mauve, pink, blue and white.
For the ages of 4 to 6 years at	$1.25
For the ages of 8 to 14 years at	$1.50
Slip-Over Gowns, with round neck and finished at edge with Vandike braid; blue, pink and white.
Sizes for 4 to 6 years	$1.00
Sizes for 8 to 14 years	$1.25
Children's High Neck Gowns, with yoke, and finished with small pin tucks. They have long sleeves and are double stitched. Sizes for 2, 4 and 6 years	$1.25
Sizes for 8 to 14 years	$1.50
Children's White Flannelette Gowns, with "V" neck, and finished with narrow binding of mauve on neck, cuffs, and sleeves. Sizes 2 to 6 years at	$1.00
Sizes for 8 to 14 years	$1.25
Children's 1st Floor

New books are arriving daily, and during November you may look over them with greater pleasure than during the Christmas rush. Any book will be reserved on payment of a small deposit.

Play-Time Busy Work Box

For Children of Kindergarten Age
Weaving and Cutting Box.
Paper Folding and Bird Stories.
Flower Chairs, Housekeeping Box.
Always Ready Box.
Boats and Light Houses.
Each, 90¢

Dennison's Doll Outfits, 60c and $1.35

Adventure Stories for Boys

New and Old—Illustrated and Neatly Bound

Masterman Ready, by Captain Marryatt	$1.75
Robinson Crusoe, by Daniel Defoe	$2.00
Robin Hood, by Henry Gilbert	$2.00
The Spy, by Fennimore Cooper	$1.75
Boys' Book of Frontier Fighters	$1.75
The Boy Scout Roll of Honor, by Eric Wood	$1.50

Brothers of the Brown Owl, At

Keepers of the Sea, by Frank Shaw

Arthur Peck's Sacrifice, by Gilbert Jessop

P. J. The Secret Service Boy, by Lord Frederick Hamilton

The Boy Scout Book of Heroes, by Eric Wood

The Wonder Book Annual

The Wonder Book Animals

The Wonder Book Railways

The Wonder Book Soldiers

The Wonder Book of Children

The Wonder Book of the Empire

The Wonder Book Why and What

The Wonder Books, Each $2.25

These are among the best values in books. They are full of pictures and reading matter, and so instructive that they are as easy to read as a story book.

The Wonder Book Annual

The Wonder Book Animals

The Wonder Book Railways

The Wonder Book Soldiers

The Wonder Book of Children

The Wonder Book of the Empire

The Wonder Book of Wonders.

The Wonder Book of Ships

The Wonder Book of the Navy

The Wonder Book of the Empire

The Wonder Book of Wonders.

Girls' Stories of School and Adventure

Patience Joan Outsider, by Elsie J. Oxenham.

Schoolgirl Chums, by Kathryn Rhodes.

Miss Quixote, by Violet M. Methley.

Pan's First Fun, by Alys Chatevyn.

A Credit to the School, by Alys Chatevyn.

The Girls of St. Augustine's, by Margaret Ironside.

Orders May Be Placed Now

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts

Chumby Books

Jolly Book

The Golden Books for Boys

The Lilac Book for Girls

at

The Chatterbox

The Oxford Annual for Scouts